I've already asked someone to draft the divorce agreement. You just need to sign it.

Mrs. PEI looked at the divorce agreement on the table and then looked at su Wanwan. don't worry, our PEI family will not treat you badly. After all, you and mu Nian have been married for so long. So, after you divorce, we will give you ten million.

Ten million?

Mrs. PEI was really generous. She wanted to buy her son's happiness with ten million Yuan.

She had never hated Mrs. PEI because she knew that Mrs. PEI hated her so much because she had done many wrong things in the past, which led to her terrible attitude.

However, at the moment of PEI Munian's life and death, she still wanted to make use of her. At this moment, she really started to hate her.

Su Wanwan straightened her back and stared at her with her black eyes. She said seriously, "I don't want your money. I just want to ask you, will you let me see mu Nian immediately and let me accompany him if I sign this divorce agreement?"

"Of course." Mrs. PEI replied, "but Qianqian, you have to leave when Munian wakes up.

Su Wanwan's eyebrows twisted and she couldn't help but sneer, "it's not enough to force me to sign the divorce agreement. Now you want to force me to leave?"

"After you sign the divorce papers, you and mu Nian will be strangers. Do you still want to stay by his side? Su Wanwan, I was too kind to you in the past, that's why I let my son suffer disasters again and again. I won't let it go again. I will get rid of the people who shouldn't exist around my son!"

As Mrs. PEI spoke, she became a little agitated. She covered her heart with her hand and coughed. Butler Xi, who was guarding at the side, quickly calmed her down and then said to su Wanwan, "miss su, Madam is not in good health. Since you've made your decision, don't talk so much nonsense and go against Madam. Either you sign it as soon as possible, or you can leave.

"Ha."

Su Wanwan was still smiling. The coldness in her heart was even colder than the coldness in her body. She took a few steps forward, picked up the pen on the table, and directly turned to the last page. She first crossed out the amount of alimony on the divorce and then quickly signed her name on the signature area.

mu Nian and I won't fall in love because of a marriage contract, and naturally, we won't break up because of a divorce contract. I signed this divorce agreement because I love him very much, not because of your coercion and bullying!

When su Wanwan wrote the last stroke, she threw the pen back on the table with force. The crisp sound was deafening.

“Now, can you tell me where Mu Nian is?”

Mrs. PEI seemed to have been angered by her firm words. Her chest heaved up and down and she was unable to answer her for a moment. It was Xi Zhiwei who spoke up instead. brother Munian has been transferred to the VIP Ward in the xxx hospital. I'll text you the exact address later.

Su Wanwan didn't say anything and turned to leave.

“What kind of attitude is this? what kind of attitude is this?” Mrs. PEI said hatefully, “ I really don't understand why Munian would like a woman like this!

Auntie, don't be angry anymore. The divorce papers have been signed anyway. From now on, she has nothing to do with brother mu Nian. She won't appear in front of you again.

Mrs. PEI's brows were still tightly knitted. but even if Hanhan is divorced, everything we've done will be in vain if mu Nian still goes to look for Hanhan after she wakes up.
