Xi Zhiwei's eyes swept over the divorce agreement on the table and her lips curved up slightly. Auntie, how could it be useless? It's very useful, tsk tsk."

"What do you mean by that?"

Xi Zhiwei did not answer. She only smiled mysteriously and continued, Auntie, get the lawyer to deal with this divorce agreement as soon as possible. Also, you must transfer the 10 million to su Wanwan.

These words made Mrs. PEI even more confused. Weiwei, what are you trying to do? "

"Auntie, just trust me."

Su Wanwan walked out of the PEI family's old house and immediately saw Shen Ziwei holding an umbrella. He had been standing at the door and his black eyes were staring at the door. Her heart warmed and she quickly walked over.

Shen Ziwei walked over to her and scanned her face. After confirming that she had not been bullied by Mrs. PEI again, he heaved a sigh of relief. how did it go? " alright, let's go home first. You can take a hot bath and change your clothes. Don't catch a cold. You have to take care of PEI Munian from now on. You can't fall sick.

"I already know which hospital mu Nian is at."

Su Wanwan originally wanted to go directly to see PEI Munian, but brother Ziwei's words made sense. She would easily catch a cold in these wet clothes, so she had to change out first.

Shen Ziwei half-hugged su Wan and brought her to his car. After getting in the car, he first gave her a towel. wipe yourself first.

He turned on the heater, started the car, and drove away quickly.

When su Wanwan came out of the hot bath, she received a text message from Xi Zhiwei on her phone. She read it and quickly changed her clothes. Then, she casually packed a few clothes and some daily necessities, stuffed them into her Luggage Bag, and carried them out of the room.

When she went downstairs, nanny li had already made the ginger soup. When she saw her coming down, she said, " "Miss, come and drink the ginger soup."

Shen Ziwei followed her downstairs and said, " okay, drink a few more bowls. I'll send you there after you're done.

Xxx hospital was a famous private hospital with the best privacy. Many rich and famous people liked to come here because the security team here was excellent. They would never let any suspicious people in. When entering, they had to go through many layers of inspection and were extremely strict.

Therefore, those who could enter this place were either rich or noble, and they were dedicated to serving people of high status.

Mr. And Mrs. PEI had their guard up against her to this extent. If she refused to sign the divorce agreement, she might really not be able to see PEI Munian.

Shen Ziwei wasn't allowed to enter without permission, so he only sent su Wanwan to the door. He urged her, " if there's anything, give me a call immediately, okay? "

I know, brother Ziwei. Don't worry, I'll take care of myself.

Shen Ziwei raised his hand and rubbed su Wanwan's head. He sighed with heartache. I hope ran ran can wake PEI Munian up soon. Don't let him sleep anymore. His parents have been bullying you.

Su Wanwan's nose couldn't help but ache. Tears flickered at the bottom of her eyes, but she still curved her lips and smiled. yes, he bullied me like this. I was waiting for him to wake up and help me take revenge.

"Silly girl, hurry up and go in."

Su Wan nodded her head and walked in step by step. After various examinations, she finally entered PEI Munian's ward.

The man was lying there quietly, with all kinds of tubes and instruments inserted into his body. Su Wanwan only took a glance and the tears in her eyes couldn't stop falling.
