Su Wanwan subconsciously raised her hand and touched her forehead. Perhaps her palm was too hot and she couldn't feel the temperature of her forehead. Was she sick? Or was it because she had slept on the bed for the whole night, so she felt uncomfortable?

Her gaze fell back on PEI Munian's face and her voice became hoarse. It's already been two days. When are you going to wake up? I'm so uncomfortable. Can you wake up quickly? "

She held his hand and placed it on her cheek. His palm didn't have any warmth and was slightly cold. When it was placed on her warm cheek, Su Wanwan sighed, " you see, in order to see you, I knelt in the rain for a long time and was forced to sign the divorce agreement. When you wake up, you must compensate me well, understand? You still owe me something. You have to wake up and finish it. If you dare to die like this, I, Qianqian, will not live alone! Whether you're alive or dead, I'll follow you."

"If you don't want anything to happen to me, wake up, wake up!"

At the end of his sentence, the hoarse voice sounded like a roar, and he started coughing unconsciously.

She quickly turned her face away and coughed. Suddenly, she felt a slight movement in her fingers. She was stunned and looked back in surprise.

Did he move his finger when he urged PEI Munian to move? Did he hear what she said?

Su Wanwan quickly put PEI Munian's hand back on the bed. Her black eyes widened and stared at his hand. "Niannian, did you hear what I said? You can feel me, right? If you're still conscious, move your finger again, move it!"

Su Wanwan almost held her breath and waited. One second, two seconds, three seconds later, she finally urged his little finger to move very slightly.

She blinked her dark eyes and confirmed that she was not hallucinating. Her chest was filled with endless excitement. She quickly turned and ran out of the ward, shouting at the people outside, " call the doctor, call the doctor quickly. Mu Nian is reacting. He is reacting.

When the bodyguards guarding outside saw this, one of them quickly went to call the doctor. Su Wanwan was excited for a while and was about to enter the ward when her feet suddenly softened and she fell down.

The other bodyguard looked at her and couldn't help but reach out to help her. "Miss su, are you alright?"

Su Wanwan gently shook her head and wanted to say that she was fine, but her eyes suddenly turned black and her body softly fell down.

When she woke up again, it was already dark outside. There was only one wall lamp in the room, emitting a dim yellow light.

Su Wanwan's eyes stared at the White ceiling in a daze. For a moment, she didn't know where she was.

After a while, she regained some consciousness and looked around the room. This was obviously a hospital ward. She was lying on the bed with an IV drip in one hand.

What was wrong with her?

Su Wanwan furrowed her brows and thought about it. She was clearly accompanying PEI Munian.

No, she remembered that PEI Munian already had a reaction and she went to call the doctor. After that, she couldn't remember anything. What about niannian? Is niannian awake?

Su Wanwan tried her best to prop up her sore and soft body. She wanted to get up and see how PEI Munian was doing. However, she didn't have much strength now and couldn't get up for a while.

The door to the ward was suddenly pushed open, and she heard footsteps. She looked up reflexively.

The slender woman walked over step by step, her face imprinted in su Wanwan's eyes bit by bit. There was a smile on her lips, and she couldn't hide her joy, " sister Wanwan, you're awake? "
