Seeing that su Wan was struggling to get up, she quickly stepped forward, reached out to hold su Wanwan's shoulder, and gently advised: sister Wanwan, don't move around. You have a high fever.

High fever?

Was she in so much pain because she was sick?

However, su Wanwan couldn't care about this at this moment. She licked her dry lips and said hoarsely, "where's mu Nian?" How is mu Nian? Has he woken up?"

yes, brother mu Nian has regained consciousness. He even opened his eyes briefly just now. After the doctor's examination, he said that he'll slowly wake up. He'll recover slowly if he recuperates well. I really have to thank you this time, sister Wanwan. Xi Zhiwei's voice was filled with joy. brother mu Nian has finally made it through.

Thank her?

Waking PEI Munian up was something she should have done. Why should she, Xi Zhiwei, thank her? It was as if she was doing her a favor.

On the surface, he pretended to be friendly, but in fact, every word and sentence was hiding a knife. The words he said made people feel extremely uncomfortable.

However, she could not be bothered to argue with her. The most important thing was that mu Nian was awake and he was fine. She wanted to go and see him.

Su Wanwan once again struggled to get up. Xi Zhiwei quickly said, "sister Wanwan, your body is still very weak. It's better not to move around.

"You don't have to worry about me. I'm going to see mu Nian now."

She forced herself to sit up and was about to get off the bed when Xi Zhiwei opened her mouth in surprise. you're going to see brother mu Nian? "

Su Wanwan lifted her eyelids. There was no warmth in the light at the bottom of her eyes. She wanted to see PEI Munian. What was the problem?

Xi Zhiwei seemed to have read her mind. She hesitated for a few seconds and said, "sister Wanwan, have you forgotten the deal between you and aunty? You and brother mu Nian are no longer husband and wife, and you've agreed to leave as soon as brother mu Nian wakes up!"

No wonder Xi Zhiwei had come here. She had been informed that she was leaving.

Mrs. PEI was really heartless. PEI Munian had just woken up and she was already so eager to chase her away, not even letting her see her.

Su Wanwan bit her lower lip hard and said in a deep voice, "let me see mu Nian. I'll leave when I see him.

Since PEI Munian had already woken up, she only needed to make sure that he was fine. When he was fully awake, he would naturally look for her.

I'm sorry, sister Wanwan. It's not that I don't want you to see brother mu Nian, but it's just that Auntie urged you to keep your promise and not make her angry again.

Su Wanwan's lips twitched and her eyes were full of ridicule. He said it as if he was thinking about her, but he was still afraid that she would see mu Nian.

Xi Zhiwei lowered her eyes and pretended not to see it. She continued, by the way, I've already informed your brother Ziwei to come and pick you up. You can leave after this drip is done.

After saying this, she smiled at su Wanwan, turned around, and left the ward.

When she walked out, Shen Ziwei happened to walk in. The two of them brushed past each other. Shen Ziwei's cold gaze swept past her before he strode in. Wanwan, are you alright? "

Su Wanwan shook her head. I'm fine. After a pause, she continued. brother Ziwei, you're here just in time. Help me call the nurse. I want to remove the needle.

Even if Mrs. PEI did not allow her to see PEI Munian, she had to go and take a look before she left. Even if it was just a glance from a distance, she would not be able to feel at ease.
