1023 He has a reaction (7)

Shen Ziwei knew what she was thinking and shook his head disapprovingly. look at your face now. You're so pale. You're going to collapse in two steps. You'd better rest in peace. As for PEI Munian, I don't think you'll be able to see him now. When I came in, I was accompanied by bodyguards, and they're still guarding the door now to prevent you from looking for PEI Munian. Besides, PEI Munian's parents should be in her Ward, so there's no point in you going."

"But Yingluo."

"Alright, I'm done. Since PEI Munian has already woken up, what are you afraid of? When he's completely awake and his body has recovered, he definitely won't let his parents continue to bully you like this. You've been so worried about him these past few days, and now that you're so sick, you don't want him to see you sick and still worry about you, right?"

Shen Ziwei raised his hand and patted su Wanwan's shoulder. now, you just have to be good and finish the drip. Then, we'll go home and rest. Just wait for PEI Munian to find you.

Su Wanwan's illness lasted for more than a week before it slowly improved. For more than a week, she had been staring at her phone, afraid of missing PEI Munian's call. However, Yingluo's phone didn't have any movement for more than a week. Not to mention a call, there wasn't even a text message.

However, su Wanwan consoled herself. After all, PEI Munian was seriously injured and had just woken up. She must have been lying in bed for more than a week and couldn't do anything. It was understandable that he couldn't contact her for the time being.

It was a pity that he had lost his phone in the car accident, so she could not contact him. The only thing she could do was to wait.

After she had recovered, she had tried to go to the hospital, but she could not get in. She could only loiter outside the hospital from morning to night. In the end, Shen Ziwei had pulled her back.

Another week passed by quietly, but there was still no news from PEI Munian.

Su Wanwan's heart couldn't help but panic a little. It's been half a month. How did his body recover a little? It couldn't be that he couldn't even make a phone call or send a text message, right?

She was not afraid of anything else. She was just worried that PEI Munian's injuries would worsen and that something would happen again!

brother Ziwei, can you think of a way? I'm really worried about mu Nian. I can't sleep at night now. My heart keeps palpitating as if something is going to happen.

Shen Ziwei also felt that this situation was a bit strange. If PEI Munian was awake, it was impossible that she didn't contact Su Wanwan. Why hadn't there been any news until now?

“Why don’t you contact PEI Munian’s assistant and ask him if he knows what’s going on?” he suggested after some thought.

“Alright!”

Su Wanwan quickly took out her phone and called assistant Wu.

Because of PEI Munian’s accident and hospitalization, he had to deal with all the company’s matters on his behalf. So, he was very busy and only picked up su Wanwan’s phone after a long time.

“Assistant Wu, it’s me.”

ah, young Madam, I’m so sorry. I was so busy that I didn’t hear my phone ring just now. What’s the matter? ”

“Yes.” Su Wanwan gently swallowed her saliva and slowly said, ” “Assistant Wu, have you been to the hospital to visit mu Nian recently? do you know how he is now? Are you feeling better?”
