1028 Banquet at Hongmen (4)

She was the one who had stopped her from accompanying PEI Munian, she was the one who had woken her up, and she was the one who had forced her to sign the divorce papers. Now, all the credit was pushed to Xi Zhiwei, and she was the one to take the blame for all the bad things she had done.

“No wonder she invited me to this dinner party today, Yingluo.”

Even if Mrs. PEI didn't like her, it was too much to casually fabricate facts like this.

However, it didn't matter what she said. She didn't care. She didn't care what other people said or how they looked at her. She only believed in PEI Munian.

If Mrs. PEI only wanted to embarrass her tonight, then there was no need for her to stay. She had only come here to see PEI Munian.

Brother Ziwei, since niannian isn't here, let's go.

“Alright,” he said.

Shen Ziwei nodded and was about to leave with her when Madam PEI's voice rang out from behind them. my son is still very weak, but since it's such a happy day today, he thinks it's necessary for him to come out with Weiwei to meet everyone.

One sentence, su Wanwan's footsteps suddenly stopped.

PEI Munian is here?

Su Wanwan reflexively turned around, her black eyes urgently looking over. She saw a familiar figure walking in a wheelchair, pushed by Xi Zhiwei from the back, appearing little by little in everyone's field of vision.

Perhaps PEI Munian's body was really weak, as she was wearing a little too much. As she sat there, the injury on her face did not seem to have healed. He was wearing a hat and a pair of big sunglasses, which almost covered his entire face, leaving only the curve of his chin. He seemed to have lost a lot of weight because of the car accident, and his skin was so white that it was almost transparent.

Niannian

She hadn't seen him for almost a month. She missed him so much and was so worried about him. Now that she could finally see him safe and sound, her suspended heart could finally be put at ease.

However, if niannian was awake, if niannian knew about the engagement, why didn't he object at all? Why did he accept it so indifferently?

What was going on?

Shen Ziwei, who was beside her, was also stunned when he saw PEI Munian. He had originally thought that today's engagement was planned by Mrs. PEI alone, but he did not expect PEI Munian to silently agree to it.

He had already clearly understood how much PEI Munian loved su Wanwan in Switzerland. Why did Wanwan suddenly change?

"I'm going to ask him!"

As su Wanwan spoke, she walked back and directly pushed through the crowd. She stepped forward in two or three steps. niannian Qian Qian.

Just as she shouted, a bodyguard suddenly rushed out and blocked her way, as if he had been prepared. miss su, young master is still very weak. Please don't get close to him.

Su Wanwan couldn't push away the two bodyguards in front of her and could only shout at PEI Munian, " niannian, I'm here, niannian!

Although there was some distance between them, PEI Munian still heard her voice. She turned her head slightly and looked in her direction. Su Wanwan looked at his face, but his face was covered by those big sunglasses and she couldn't see his expression. But since he saw her, he would come over.

"Niannian Yingluo." Su Wanwan subconsciously shouted again.

However, after he looked over, he turned his head back coldly as if he couldn't see her.

Su Wanwan was stunned.

Her beautiful big eyes blinked again and again, her long curly eyelashes trembled, and her black pupils suddenly contracted. Su Wanwan looked at the man sitting in the wheelchair in front of her in disbelief.

He had clearly seen her and heard her calling him, so why didn't he have any reaction at all?

He hadn't looked for her since he woke up for more than a month. She thought that his injuries hadn't recovered yet. She was in fear every day and had nightmares, afraid that something had happened to him.

Now that he was finally getting better and could see her again, Yingluo was pretending not to see her? And he was still standing with Xi Zhiwei among the guests, receiving everyone's blessings and compliments.

Could it be that he believed what Mrs. PEI had said and thought that she had really abandoned him when his life was in danger, signed the divorce papers, and cut off all ties with him? Was that why he was angry with her and ignored her?

However, as soon as this thought flashed through her mind, she shook her head violently.

No, it was impossible. She and Nian Nian had gone through so many things, and it had been so difficult for them to be together. They both understood each other's feelings, so how could he believe Mrs. PEI and Xi Zhiwei's one-sided words?

If it wasn't because of this Yingluo, what was it?

Su Wanwan furrowed her eyebrows and thought about it. Previously, the doctor said that his heart and brain were the most serious injuries. Did he hurt his brain like she did before and his memory was erased? or did he not remember what happened before for the time being, so he was provoked by Mrs. PEI and Xi Zhiwei?

More and more doubts surfaced in her mind, making her want to rush up to PEI Munian and ask her clearly.

She glared at the two bodyguards in front of her and clenched her fists tightly.

Shen Ziwei walked up from the back and was extremely surprised to see the situation. PEI Munian had regained consciousness. Although her movements were not very smooth, they were not restricted. Wanwan was right in front of him, but why did he act as if he did not know her?

Wanwan, didn't assistant Wu tell you that PEI Munian's recovery is going well and there are no other side effects? " Shen Ziwei's voice slowly rang in su Wanwan's ears. Although he said it tactfully, su Wanwan understood.

If there were no aftereffects, which meant that he did not lose his memory, he would not ignore her just because he had forgotten her.

If he had not forgotten her, then why did he ignore her?

In front, PEI Munian and Xi Zhiwei had been socializing for a while. PEI Munian seemed to be tired and Xi Zhiwei smiled gently at everyone. I'm so sorry. Brother Munian needs to rest. Have fun. We'll treat everyone well the next time we hold a wedding.

With that, she pushed PEI Munian and turned to leave.

Shen Ziwei's eyes narrowed. It wasn't easy for him to meet PEI Munian. He couldn't just let him leave like this. He couldn't let Wanwan wait anxiously all the time. He had to make things clear!

Wanwan, I'll help you block these two bodyguards. You chase after them and talk things out with PEI Munian.

Shen Ziwei quickly whispered this in su Wanwan's ear and then stepped forward to stop the two bodyguards. Su Wanwan reacted and took the opportunity to run past them. When the bodyguards wanted to chase after them, they were stopped by Shen Ziwei.

Xi Zhiwei pushed PEI Munian to the backyard, and su Wanwan followed closely behind.

Su Wanwan quickly scuttled through the crowd. However, when she was about to walk out of the banquet hall, two bodyguards came out of nowhere and blocked her again.
