

Deeply 1048

1048 Why is she here?(2)

As soon as this thought flashed in her mind, su Wanwan shook her head violently and knocked on her head with her hand.

Because of Xi Zhiwei, she was so nervous that she thought that everyone was interested in PEI Munian. Ning Jingting treated PEI Munian as her Savior. If she knew that he was hospitalized, it would not be strange for her to visit him.

The main point was that PEI Munian was not interested in her at all. When they were in the Maldives, he was not interested in talking to her at all. No, it should be said that PEI Munian only had her in her heart. He did not even look at any other woman.

Although the situation in front of her was very strange, and there were many doubts floating in her mind, she should not let her thoughts run wild before she figured out the situation.

Su Wanwan's gaze returned to PEI Munian. Her hand on the doorknob unconsciously tightened and her feet were also a little restless. She couldn't wait to go in directly and meet PEI Munian.

However, now that Mrs. PEI was inside and PEI Munian's situation was still unknown, brother Ziwei had reminded her many times not to be rash, to think twice before acting, and to try not to have a direct conflict with Mrs. PEI.

Hence, she could only endure it now. Otherwise, if Mrs. PEI found out about her, she might secretly move PEI Munian away. It would be even more difficult to find him again.

Oh, right. Auntie, mu Nian, my birthday is next Tuesday. My parents are planning to throw a party for me to celebrate. I'd like to invite you to my birthday party. I wonder if you'd be willing to do me the honor.

Su Wanwan's thoughts were suddenly interrupted by ning Jingting's words and she quickly recovered.

"Jingting, your birthday is next Tuesday? Sure, I'll be staying here for a while. Next Tuesday, mu Nian will be discharged from the hospital. You've been so helpful during this period of time, so of course, we'll have to give you some face." Mrs. PEI replied with a smile.

Ning Jingting's little face immediately filled with a smile, and her voice was full of joy. that's a deal, then. I'll be waiting for you.

As she spoke, ning Jingting's phone rang. She answered the call and said, "Auntie, mu Nian, my chauffeur is here to pick me up. I'll be leaving first today. I'll come back tomorrow.

"I want you to come over every day to accompany this boring son of yours. Don't bore you to death."

"I don't think so. I like it here."

"You like hospitals?" Mrs. PEI raised her eyebrows.

Ning Jingting blurted out, but then her face turned red and she hurriedly explained, " I mean, mu Nian saved me before. He's recuperating now and it's boring to be alone in the hospital, so I came here to accompany him to repay him for saving my life.

Mrs. PEI smiled with understanding.

Ning Jingting's explanation was like a cover-up, and she glared at Mrs. PEI. Auntie!

"Alright, it's getting late, let's go back." Madam PEI turned to Butler Xi and said,"Butler Xi, please send Jingting downstairs."

"Yes, Madam."

Butler Xi replied respectfully, then made a gesture of invitation to ning Jingting. miss ning, let me see you out.

Ning Jingting nodded. After bidding Mrs. PEI and PEI Munian goodbye, she walked towards the door of the ward.

When su Wanwan saw this, she quickly closed the door, then dragged her luggage and ran away quickly to the safe aisle. Behind her, Butler Xi and ning Jingting had already come out of the ward.
