Mrs. PEI knew that PEI Munian understood what she meant, so she went straight to the point. For the past month, Jingting has been taking care of you. You were only able to survive because she asked her uncle to perform the surgery for you. She's been by your bedside for many days and nights, afraid that you would not wake up. Don't you know what she thinks about you? "

PEI Munian raised her eyebrows, as if she found it a little ridiculous. Do I need to know what she has in mind for me? "

"Stop playing dumb." Mrs. PEI chuckled. You know what I mean.

"So?"

I think Pingting is a good girl. She's innocent and cute, and she's devoted to you. She's been working so hard for you, and her family background is clean. She's a good match for our family. What I mean is, if you like her, you can consider her.

Mrs. PEI had just finished speaking when PEI Munian burst out laughing.

"Mom, is polygamous marriage still popular in the 21st century? Even if she could, I don't think Tingting would want to be a little Pixiu."

What nonsense are you talking about again? What polygamous, what big and small? You're single now. Don't tell me you still miss that heartless Su Wanwan? "

"Single? Mom, I'm engaged, right? With Wei Wei." After a pause, PEI Munian's voice became even more languid. And it's an engagement party that I'm not present at.

"This Yingluo."

When this matter was brought up, Mrs. PEI felt a little guilty. At that time, in order to let Su Wanwan stop pestering her, she was incited by Xi Zhiwei to do that thing. Su Wanwan's attention was taken away by that thing, so she could secretly move PEI Munian to the United States for treatment. It was killing two birds with one stone.

However, after she calmed down and thought about it, she realized that Xi Zhiwei was too scheming. Although she had always liked Xi Zhiwei and treated her as half a daughter, Xi Zhiwei had always been well-behaved and innocent in front of her. That was why she liked her so much. In this period of time, the schemes that she had presented to her, one after another, had really made her look at her in a new light.

Suddenly, she realized that she did not recognize Xi Zhiwei, who she had been with for so many years. The well-behaved and kind Wei Wei seemed to have disappeared without her knowing. Or rather, she had never seen her true face.

She couldn't help but feel a little unhappy and disgusted. In addition, she had met the innocent Ning Jingting, so the balance in her heart naturally leaned towards her.

Of course, it wasn't that she didn't like Xi Zhiwei. It was just that Xi Zhiwei's thoughts were so heavy that she might not be suitable for mu Nian. As a mother, she wouldn't be willing to see her future daughter-in-law scheme against her son, just like su Wanwan. She didn't want her second daughter-in-law to make the same mistake.

"T-that party was only held because your car accident caused the company's stock price to fluctuate. I only agreed to hold it to let everyone know that you're fine so that it won't affect the company. That engagement party is also informal. I know that you don't have feelings for Weiwei. If you don't like it, that engagement can be called off at any time."

"You don't like it?" PEI Munian's thin lips parted slightly as she lazily said, " who told you that I don't like it? "

PEI Munian's eyelids twitched, and her dark eyes inadvertently swept over to Butler Xi, who was sitting in the front passenger seat. She said word by word, " if I had to choose between ning pingting and Wei Wei, I would choose Xuanji and Wei Wei.
