

Deeply 1061

1061 A play within a play (9)

Su Wanwan didn't know how she returned to the hotel. She almost drifted all the way back. Her tears had dried up and her eyes hurt badly. As soon as she returned to the hotel room, she fell on the bed, tired from crying, and fell asleep just like that.

She didn't know how long she slept, but the phone kept ringing in her ear. Su Wanwan's head was dizzy and heavy, and she had nightmares again and again. She tried hard to wake up, but her eyelids seemed to be pressed by a mountain and she couldn't break free. In her daze, she waved her hand at the bedside table and the phone seemed to be thrown to the ground and fell. Then, the whole world returned to silence.

When she regained consciousness again, she was woken up by the sound of knocking on the door. Su Wan's long and curly eyelashes trembled. Su Wan slowly opened her eyes. There was darkness in front of her eyes. She was stunned for a moment before she woke up.

Who was knocking on Yingluo's door in the middle of the night?

Su Wanwan scratched her hair, supported herself with her hands on the bed, and wanted to get up. However, she didn't know if it was because she had slept for a long time, but her body was a little weak. It took a while before she could get up and land on her feet.

She casually grabbed her coat and put it on before walking towards the door. who is it? "

"Wanwan, it's me."

Su Wanwan opened her eyes in surprise and quickly opened the door. When she saw the tall figure standing at the door, her black pupils contracted slightly and her voice couldn't hide her surprise, " Zi, brother Ziwei? You, why are you here?"

Shen Ziwei stepped in. His black eyes sized su Wanwan up and down. Seeing that although her face was a little pale, she was still standing there in good condition, his suspended heart finally relaxed.

"You'd be better off asking me. You didn't pick up my calls and then turned off your phone. I called your hotel and told them that you hadn't left your house for two days. I was worried that something had happened to you, so I naturally had to fly over to see you."

"Two days?"

Su Wanwan couldn't help but return to her room and look for her mobile phone. She wanted to look at the time but found that her mobile phone had fallen to the ground and had automatically turned off. After she turned it on, she found that it was really two days later.

In other words, she had slept for 36 hours after coming back from the birthday party?

Oh my God.

"I thought I only slept for a short while. I didn't expect to sleep for so long."

Shen Ziwei looked at her worriedly. are you alright? " Did something happen again?"

The other reason why he came to the United States was because he knew that Xi Zhiwei had also flown to the United States yesterday and Su Wanwan had turned off her phone. He was worried that something would happen, so he immediately arranged the company's matters and booked a ticket to fly over.

What happened?

Su Wanwan's mind suddenly recalled what happened at the birthday party that day. PEI Munian's unfamiliar eyes and cold attitude. She pulled the corners of her lips and fell to the bed, smiling bitterly. I saw niannian.

"Then, Zhenzhen."

"But he ignored me." Su Wanwan tried her best to speak in a calm tone, but her voice still choked up unconsciously. because he didn't believe me. He felt that I took the money, signed the divorce agreement, and left him. He didn't even give me a chance to explain.

Wanwan, why didn't you make it clear to him? "

Since they had met, with her drive and determination, she would definitely find a chance to have a good talk with him.

I thought that after going through so much, we would have a tacit understanding of our relationship, but after so many twists and turns, we seem to be back to square one. Brother Ziwei, I'm tired.