

Deeply 1064

1064 A play within a play (12)

"Next, I'll naturally find an opportunity to clarify the matter." Shen Ziwei replied with a mysterious smile. I've found out that Xi Zhiwei will be accompanying PEI Munian to attend the opening ceremony of a resort tomorrow. That resort seems to be the ning family's property, so that ning Jingting should be there too. It'll be very lively. Let's go and join in the fun.

She didn't expect that brother Ziwei had already made plans for her. Su Wan's heart was filled with strands of warmth and she gratefully smiled. brother Ziwei, thank you.

alright, eat more and have a good sleep tonight. You'll only have the strength to fight tomorrow.

"Yes."

—

The next day.

The opening ceremony was at ten in the morning. On the first day, they would not be entertaining any guests, only those who had been specially invited by the hotel. Shen Ziwei had somehow managed to get two invitation cards, and they were able to enter the resort without a hitch.

During the opening ceremony, Xi Zhiwei held PEI Munian's hand and walked over leisurely. Her face was full of pride and grace. Ning Jingting stood at the side and looked at them. The smile on her face was frozen and could not be concealed.

Su Wanwan stood in the crowd, her eyes moving between Xi Zhiwei and ning Jingting, and she couldn't help but sigh.

Ning Jingting was a young girl. She was obviously inexperienced. Her family was too well-off. It was inevitable that she would be overprotected. She would be innocent and naive. She would show all her emotions on her face. How could she be compared to Xi Zhiwei, who was an actor and actress?

However, ning Jingting's attitude towards her was not easy to deal with. After all, many things could not be seen from the surface. Ning Jingting's family background was more powerful than Xi Zhiwei's, and Mrs. PEI had a good impression of ning Jingting. Xi Zhiwei might not be able to gain an advantage.

Of course, the most important thing was to see what PEI Munian thought.

Su Wanwan turned her dark eyes and looked at the tall and elegant man standing there. His hair was a little short, but he looked sharp and energetic. The suit wrapped around his body made him look even more handsome and dashing.

No wonder he always attracted so many rotten peach blossoms!

As su Wanwan thought about it, she couldn't help but get angry. She glared at PEI Munian fiercely and looked at his bright and clean face. She became more and more angry. He clearly hurt his cheek in the car accident before. Why didn't he leave a few scars? That way, he would be uglier and there wouldn't be so many women staring at him.

She did not know if it was because her resentment was too deep, but PEI Munian, who was standing there and preparing to cut the ribbon, seemed to feel it and her black eyes subconsciously swept over to the crowd.

Su Wanwan's back subconsciously stiffened.

His gaze seemed to have stopped on her face for a second, but it also seemed like he did not see her, and he quickly looked away.

Su Wanwan stared at him sullenly. Her eyes almost stared through him, but he didn't look over again.

After the ribbon-cutting ceremony, the resort announced its official opening. After the hotel's staff welcomed the guests into the hotel rooms, it was free time for them to visit the resort and play.

Su Wanwan wasn't in the mood to visit the resort. She just wanted to find PEI Munian as soon as possible and find an opportunity to meet him alone and explain things to him.

After Shen Ziwei and su Wanwan went to the room and put down their things, they walked out together. On the way, they asked a waiter and found out that PEI Munian, Xi Zhiwei, and ning Jingting were all at the golf course.