The interview at the airport was published in all the entertainment news sections on the same day. All the entertainment programs on TV inserted this interview. You could see it as soon as you turned on the TV.

After dinner, su Wanwan and Shen Ziwei were watching the evening news. This interview was the first thing that came to an end.

Shen Ziwei glanced sideways at su Wanwan, who was holding Xiao Zeze and feeding him mashed potatoes. He raised his eyebrows slightly.

For more than a week, he had lost his soul because of su Zao and didn't pay much attention to su Wanwan. But when he saw her today, he couldn't help but be surprised.

Only then did he realize that this week after returning to China, su Wanwan's performance was too calm.

She and PEI Munian had such a big fight, and now that PEI Munian was going to marry Xi Zhiwei, she had no reaction at all? This didn't seem right, right?

If su Wanwan was like this because she really didn't care, then it was naturally good. But he was worried that she would suppress herself too much and suppress all the sadness and injuries to the bottom of her heart, which would suffocate her.

"Wanwan, is your Yueyue alright?"

Su Wanwan didn't raise her head and replied naturally, " what could happen to me? "

Shen Ziwei's dark eyes subconsciously glanced at the television screen before returning to her face. you know that PEI Munian and Xi Zhiwei are getting married, right? If you're sad, then sob."

Su Wanwan curved her lips and looked up. brother Ziwei, Didn't I tell you? " PEI Munian and I have already cut off all ties. Whoever he wants to marry or be with has nothing to do with me anymore. Why would I be sad because of him?"

Wanwan, are you serious? " Shen Ziwei furrowed his brows, his eyes filled with confusion.

Could su Wanwan really let it go so easily?

brother Ziwei, you don't have to worry about me. You've been acting like a walking corpse recently. You should just adjust yourself and stop worrying about me.

Su Wanwan opened her mouth and her voice lowered, " sister, you'd better forget about her.

In fact, she had been thinking that since her grandfather had passed away, if her sister and brother-in-law were not happy, it would be better for them to get a divorce. After all, brother Ziwei had been waiting for her sister and she believed that brother Ziwei could give her sister happiness. However, when she saw them in such a situation at the airport that day, although she did not know what had happened, she thought that her sister would not accept brother Ziwei anymore. In that case, it would be useless for brother Ziwei to continue waiting.

At the mention of su Zao, the look in Shen Ziwei's eyes quickly darkened and he was no longer in the mood to comfort su Wanwan. She subconsciously avoided it. Wanwan, I still have some things to do. I'll go to the study room to deal with them. Don't let Xiao Zeze eat too much at night, lest he accumulates food.

Su Wanwan looked at Shen Ziwei's stiff back as he left and sighed softly.

In love, everyone is a coward? They would unconsciously escape! However, running away would not solve any problems. So, she did not run away and faced it bravely.

The phone suddenly rang. Su Wanwan picked it up and saw the caller ID. She couldn't help but raise her eyebrows. After picking up the call, she couldn't wait to say, "Is there any news?"

yes, miss su. The man has appeared. I think he has already spoken to Xi Zhiwei on the phone. He is now driving to Xi Zhiwei's apartment.

The heart in su Wanwan's chest quickly jumped up. She didn't wait for the rabbit in vain. Now that the rabbit finally ran out, it was time for her to catch the rabbit!
