1093 Retribution will come (15)

PEI Munian gave a look and the bodyguards who were originally going to catch su Wan immediately turned to Xi Zhiwei. They surrounded her and stopped her from escaping.

PEI Munian walked in front of Xi Zhiwei and raised her chin at the screen. is the person in the video real or fake? there are so many pairs of eyes watching. No one is blind. On the other hand, didn't you, Zhenzhen, say that you were right and asked me to find someone to confront you? Why? Now you're scared?"

"I'm Yingying."

PEI Munian reached out and grabbed Xi Zhiwei's wrist, pulling her in front of the screen. She then said to the man in the video, " if you have something to say, say it clearly now. You can ask her why you got into this car accident, why you almost lost your life, and why you're now lying in the hospital with injuries all over your body!

The man's dark eyes glared at Xi Zhiwei. His voice was hoarse but he still managed to speak with difficulty. b * tch, you broke the car's brakes on purpose to kill me. You wanted your secret to be kept a secret forever, didn't you? "

Xi Zhiwei desperately tried to break free from PEI Munian's grasp, but his five fingers were like chains, firmly locking her wrist, and she could not break free.

She could only try her best to defend herself."Yingluo, what nonsense are you spouting? What Car? what brake? I don't even know what you're talking about!"

"Are you playing dumb now? In order to seal my mouth, you promised to give me money and let me drive your car away, but you had already broken the brakes and wanted me to die in a car accident! In order to cover up your secret, you actually killed her. Xi Zhiwei, you're really scary!"

Killing him to silence him

These words were like a sudden clap of thunder, exploding in everyone's ears. The two videos just now, at most, people would think that Xi Zhiwei's character was questionable. However, intentional murder was against the law, and she would have to bear criminal responsibility.

Did Xi Zhiwei really kill someone on purpose?

Everyone's attention was focused on Xi Zhiwei. The reporters aimed their cameras at Xi Zhiwei and began to snap away, afraid to miss any exciting moments.

"No, I really don't know what you're talking about. I didn't do anything dirty, so why should I give you money? And my car, sister Li can vouch for me that my car was stolen half a month ago. I even reported it to the police. I didn't expect that you were the one who stole my car. Now that something has happened to you, you still want to blame it on me?"

Xi Zhiwei's hands were clenched tightly and her whole body was trembling, but she still tried to keep calm and argue for herself. I know, it must be su Wanwan bribing you, right? Su Wanwan gave you money and asked you to frame me. Not only did you ruin my reputation, but you also want to frame me for killing someone?”

Sometimes, su Wanwan couldn't help but admire Xi Zhiwei. No matter the situation, she could drag her into it and wouldn't stop until she dragged her into it!

Xi Zhiwei knew that the former manager was still alive. It must have been a trap set up by PEI Munian or su Wanwan. When she thought that everything was fine, they suddenly came out to expose her. Fortunately, she had always been cautious in doing things so that she would not be traced back to the car accident. She had long reported that the car had gone missing and when she destroyed the car, she was also very careful.
