Chapter 110 His concern (10)

Aunt Wu looked at su Wanwan sitting on the bed. Her face was still a little pale, but she seemed to be in good spirits. There was a smile on her lips, and her black eyes were sparkling with a Crystal Light.

Su Wanwan had been married for so long, but this was the first time she saw her smile. It was no longer that cautious and lifeless look.

Auntie Wu couldn't help but smile and said, " "Young Madam, are you feeling better?"

Su Wanwan restrained her expression with some embarrassment and then nodded at aunt Wu. yes, I'm much better.

Auntie Wu took a few steps forward and placed the tray on the table. Then, she handed the porridge to her. this is the porridge that young master ordered me to make. Have it while it's hot.

PEI Munian had instructed her to make it for her?

Su Wanwan's Black eyes widened slightly and she looked at aunt Wu.

Auntie Wu seemed to know what she was thinking and nodded with certainty. it's indeed young master's orders. He said that you're sick now and probably don't have much of an appetite, so he asked me to make some porridge.

Su Wanwan still couldn't believe it.

PEI Munian had taken care of her for the entire night because she had tugged on his clothes. Just now, he had told her to rest well, but he had added that he was afraid that she would spread the disease to others.

But he still asked Auntie Wu to make porridge for her?

Was Yingluo really concerned about her?

Aunt Wu saw that su Wanwan didn't quite believe it and couldn't help but speak up for her young master, " young Madam, in fact, young master really cares about you. He heard that you were sick yesterday and immediately rushed back. Last night, it was young master who stayed here to look after you. He didn't sleep much the whole night.

She knew all of this, but PEI Munian had also shattered her fantasies.

"And Yingluo."

Aunt Wu suddenly wanted to say something but stopped. Su Wanwan saw her expression and faintly felt that she seemed to have something important to say. She couldn't help but have a trace of anticipation. aunt Wu, and what? "

There were some things that PEI Munian didn't allow aunt Wu to say. Aunt Wu naturally didn't dare to speak carelessly. However, she looked at PEI Munian and su Wan. They clearly had feelings for each other, but they were always so indifferent. She was anxious for them.

Auntie Wu hesitated for a moment, but she still couldn't help but say, " young Madam, do you remember the last time you were scalded? Back then, you asked me if young master had returned, and I said no. Actually, I lied. Young master came back that night."

PEI Munian came back that night?

Su Wanwan was stunned for a second and her heart unconsciously skipped a beat.

If PEI Munian had come back that night, then the one who had applied the medicine on her foot was him?

also, Yueyue, actually, after young master moved out, he didn't like it when there were people at home. I only came over regularly to help out. It was only after you moved in that young master let me stay here for a long time. I think he wanted someone to take care of you.

Auntie Wu was also specially called over by PEI Munian?

For a moment, su Wanwan felt like she was living in a dream. Otherwise, how could so many beautiful things happen?

young master didn't want me to tell you before. I think it might be because you're too cold, young Madam, and it hurt young master's heart, so he couldn't bring himself to do it.

young Madam, as women, we can't always be so stubborn. We need to show our weakness occasionally. Once you soften, don't men also soften? "

Was she cold?

She was just afraid of making him angry.
