

Deeply 120

Chapter 120 A brief moment of sweetness (2)

Su Wanwan reflexively closed her eyes.

Su Wanwan, who was so well-behaved, looked at PEI Munian, curled her lips, and kissed her again.

Her lips were as soft and fragrant as he remembered, and he couldn't help but sink into them.

Su Wanwan was dazed for more than a minute before she finally returned to her senses. Her eyes opened a little and looked at the handsome face in front of her. Her whole person seemed to be in a dream.

PEI Munian was kissing her, and she was kissing her so gently.

Was she really not dreaming?

But even in her dreams in the past, she had never dreamed of such a beautiful scene, Yingluo.

Su Wanwan's hand rose uncontrollably and gently wrapped around PEI Munian's body. The warmth in her palm told her that everything in front of her was real and not a dream.

She could not help but close her eyes again, opening her lips slightly as she responded to PEI Munian with a rough tongue.

Her response made PEI Munian's eyes light up with a fire. He hugged her even tighter, as if he wanted to embed her into his body, and kissed her even more intensely.

The air suddenly burst into a burst of heat that flowed in the room. The two of them kissed passionately as if they were the only two people left in the big world.

PEI Munian's hand slid down her body and slowly went into her clothes. His kiss also went with the flow and kissed her slender and white neck. Su Wanwan seemed to feel that something was wrong for a second, but before she could react, her consciousness was taken away by PEI Munian's offensive. Her whole body was in his arms, letting him do whatever he wanted.

Suddenly, there was a knock on the door.

The two crisp knocks on the door quickly pulled su Wanwan's blurred consciousness back. She suddenly widened her eyes and realized what was wrong.

This was a public setting, and she and PEI Munian were actually having fun here.

Su Wanwan's body trembled and she subconsciously pushed PEI Munian away. In the end, she couldn't push her away after a few tries. She bit her teeth and increased the strength of her hands before she pushed him away.

PEI Munian was caught off guard and was pushed away by her. Her brows were tightly furrowed and her black eyes were full of dissatisfaction as she stared at her while panting.

Su Wanwan naturally didn't want him to be angry. Her cheeks were full of shyness, her black eyes turned left and right, and her voice was as weak as a mosquito, " someone, someone is here.

PEI Munian's eyes darkened. Who would be so stupid to come and mess things up at this time?

The waiter's voice came from outside the door, saying that the last dish would be served for them. Su Wanwan quickly tidied her clothes and said, "Come in,"

The waiter came in with the dishes and placed them on the table. After saying "enjoy," he left.

PEI Munian glared at the steamed turbot on the table, wanting to stare through it. He and Su Wanwan finally had a moment of gentleness and affection, but it was actually ruined by this uninvited guest!

Su Wanwan adjusted her breathing, picked up her chopsticks again, picked up a small piece of fish, and put it in PEI Munian's bowl.

"Let's eat."

How could he still eat at this time?

At this time, Su Wanwan could actually still eat as if nothing had happened?

PEI Munian stood up immediately. "I'm full! Let's go back!"

He pushed the chair away and walked out with his long legs. However, after a few steps, he suddenly stopped and turned back to Su Wanwan. "I don't eat fish, remember!"

Su Wanwan didn't expect him to get angry just like that. She was stunned for a moment, but suddenly understood something and couldn't help but burst out laughing.
