

Deeply 140

Chapter 140 I want to live well with you (10)

It was rare that PEI Munian was willing to see her, so she naturally had to bring out her most beautiful appearance to see him. If his heart could be moved by her, that would be even better.

After Xi Zhiwei finished applying the powder, she took out a lip gloss and applied a thin layer. This was the new lipsicle that she endorsed. After applying it, it would shine and it was said to have the magic to make men want to kiss it!

As Xi Zhiwei applied the ointment, her mind was filled with images of her brother mu Nian kissing her. Her heart could not help but tremble and her body heated up.

After some preparations were done, Xi Zhiwei looked at herself in the mirror. She was perfect. She closed the powder box, lifted her feet, and walked towards the office. Who knew that just as she reached the door, she was stopped by assistant Wu.

Every time she came over, assistant Wu would stop her in all sorts of ways. She had been displeased with him for a long time, but she could only suppress her anger because he was PEI Munian's personal assistant. However, brother Munian had personally asked her to come up today, and he still dared to stop her?

With all the Old and New grudges coming together, Xi Zhiwei's tone was not polite at all. get out of the way. I've already made an appointment with brother mu Nian. He asked me to come up and meet him!

Assistant Wu did not like Xi Zhiwei either. She was essentially the same as him. They were both children of the PEI family's servants. However, she relied on her brother's kindness to the PEI family and PEI Munian to think of herself as a rich young lady.

However, assistant Wu was a smooth person. No matter how unhappy he was, he would not offend him in person. He smiled and said politely, "I know that boss PEI asked you to come up. However, boss PEI is still busy and can't see you for the time being. He asked you to wait in the resting room for a while.

"Still busy? What time is it already!"

Xi Zhiwei took out her phone in dissatisfaction and glanced at the time. it's almost two O'clock. If we don't go eat now, the restaurant will close for business.

"Let me in, I'll talk to brother mu Nian!"

Assistant Wu seemed to know that she would say that. Her expression did not change at all. She was still smiling as she replied unhurriedly, "boss PEI said that if you can't wait, I can order food for you. I'll order food at whichever restaurant you want to eat!

".....?"

What the hell! She was here to have a meal with him, not to eat takeaway!

I'm not hungry. Brother mu Nian promised to eat with me! Xi Zhiwei gritted her teeth.

Assistant Wu nodded. no, no, no. Miss Xi, I think you've misunderstood boss PEI's intentions. He agreed to have a meal with you, but he didn't. If you're not hungry, then please go ahead.

After saying that, assistant Wu made a gesture of invitation.

Xi Zhiwei gritted her teeth so hard that they almost broke. What did brother mu Nian mean by this? Was he deliberately playing with her?

Because Xi Zhiwei said that she wanted to have dinner with PEI Munian, su Wanwan thought that PEI Munian would come down soon. She didn't expect that after waiting for a long time, she still didn't see anyone.

For a moment, she didn't know if she should be depressed or happy.

She was depressed because she did not know when PEI Munian would be coming down. She was happy because PEI Munian might not be having dinner with Xi Zhiwei and she was just making things up.

If she was just making things up, she would feel more at ease.

Perhaps PEI Munian was probationary because of work. After all, Xi Zhiwei was the spokesperson of the PEI family corporation.

Although this kind of thinking was somewhat self-deceiving, su Wanwan thought about it and couldn't help but laugh at herself.
