Chapter 146 I want to live well with you (16)

Su Wanwan took out her phone from her bag, opened her contact list, found Ji Xinxin's number, and called her. The phone rang for a while before the other side picked up. A lazy female voice came through, "Hello.

Miss Ji, it's me. I'm su Wanwan.

"Oh? What's the matter?"

"There's something I need your help with, Yingluo."

After hanging up the phone, su Wanwan found the phone number of Xi Zhiwei's manager, sister li, and called her.

After the two phone calls, su Wanwan put away her phone and her lips curved. Xi Zhiwei didn't want her to disturb her and PEI Munian eating, so she would make her and PEI Munian unable to eat!

PEI Munian did not ask for a private room and sat down at a random spot in the dining hall.

Xi Zhiwei actually wanted to eat alone with PEI Munian in the private room without any disturbance. It had been a long time since she had the chance to be alone with him.

brother mu Nian, why don't we go to a private room?" she tried to sound him out. there are so many people here, it's not convenient to talk.

PEI Munian looked up lazily, her voice still as calm as ever. you're here to eat, not to talk.

Although Xi Zhiwei was trying her best to suppress her grievances, PEI Munian's words were getting more and more impolite. She could not help but speak in a hoarse voice. brother Munian, I know I've made you unhappy recently, but I'm just feeling indignant for you. Can you not treat me like this? I'm really sad.

She felt indignant for him, Yingluo.

Everyone knew that he was sad. Was su Wanwan the only one who couldn't see it?

He had no way to relieve his sadness, so how could he have the time to care about other people's sadness?

PEI Munian lowered her eyes and laughed at herself. However, her laughter disappeared in a flash and her voice was still emotionless. either you eat or you leave.

Xi Zhiwei could only shut up.

Forget it, let's eat in the main hall then. She could tell that brother mu Nian was not in a good mood today. She would make him drink more later. If he got drunk, something might happen between them.

Didn't su Wanwan use this method before to force brother mu Nian to marry her?

If she could get brother mu Nian, she wouldn't mind using such a method!

Xi Zhiwei's mood brightened up as she thought of this. She beamed with joy and said, " Okay, okay, okay. I won't talk nonsense anymore. But brother mu Nian, you can't leave me alone again today. No matter what, you have to finish this meal with me.

PEI Munian looked at her and did not say anything.

Xi Zhiwei knew that he had tacitly agreed. She immediately called for the waiter and started ordering the dishes. After ordering the main course, she pretended to ask PEI Munian, " brother Munian, shall we pay for red wine? "

PEI Munian's mind was elsewhere as she replied lazily, " up to you.

Xi Zhiwei's smile deepened. She ordered the red wine with the highest alcohol content.

After closing the menu, Xi Zhiwei said to the waiter, "The red wine can be served first."

"Alright," he said.

After the waiter left, a few minutes later, he brought in a glass of red wine and poured a glass for PEI Munian and Xi Zhiwei each. After telling them to enjoy their drinks, he left.

Xi Zhiwei held a glass of red wine and said gently to PEI Munian, " brother mu Nian, it's all my fault. I shouldn't have done anything to make you unhappy. I've already reflected on my actions. Please don't be angry anymore, okay? "
