Chapter 153 I want to live well with you (23)

Su Wanwan suddenly looked at aunt Wu, her eyes shining. what way? ”

Su Wanwan suddenly looked at aunt Wu, her eyes shining. what way? ”

Auntie Wu smiled and didn't beat around the bush. She said directly, ” young master will go back to the old residence to have dinner with master and Madam every once in a while, or stay for a few days. Young master should be going back to the old residence in a few days. If you want to see young master, you can go to the old residence when he goes back. Won't that do? ”

This method would indeed allow her to meet PEI Munian. However, they had been married for some time. Logically speaking, PEI Munian should have brought her back to meet her parents long ago, but he had never mentioned it. She had also harbored a negative attitude and did not care about it. That was why she had not officially met PEI Munian's parents, her in-laws, after they got married. Now that PEI Munian did not bring her along and she went alone, wouldn't that be a little shameless?

Su Wanwan raised her eyebrows and her tone was full of worry. it's not very good for me to come here so rashly, right? ”

Auntie Wu couldn't help but shake her head. what do you mean by rashly visiting? Young Madam, you're already married to young master, so you're the rightful young Madam of the PEI family. The old mansion is your home, so what's wrong with you returning to your own home?”

After a pause, Auntie Wu continued, ” besides, it's time for you to visit master and Madam. They must have been waiting for you to meet your new wife. Otherwise, you're being insensible.

Aunt Wu's words were reasonable. Su Wanwan couldn't refute them even if she wanted to.

Auntie Wu was right. Even if it wasn't for PEI Munian, she should still make a trip to the old residence.

Since she wanted to win PEI Munian back and start over with him, she not only had to put her heart and soul on him but also on his parents.

No, it should be said that she had to put her heart into everything or anyone related to him!

Thinking of this, su Wanwan's hesitant heart slowly became firm.

alright, Auntie Wu. I'll have to trouble you to help me check when PEI Munian will be returning to the old residence. I'll go over when she's back.

Even if PEI Munian chased her away or ridiculed her, she would try her best to get to the bottom of this matter!

Auntie Wu had found out from her son that PEI Munian would be returning to the old residence in five days.

It was her first time meeting her in-laws, so she naturally couldn't go empty-handed. Su Wanwan couldn't discuss it with her husband, so she discussed it with aunt Wu. After consulting with PEI Yi's parents about their preferences, she took Xiaomei to the mall.

Xiaomei saw that su Wanwan didn't even blink and brushed an extremely expensive jade bracelet. She couldn't help but exclaim, " sister Wanwan, your mother-in-law hasn't even met you with a gift yet. You're so generous. You'll lose half of your savings with one move.

Su Wanwan looked at the crystal-clear bracelet. It was impossible to say that she didn't feel heartache, but if Wanwan couldn't bear to part with the child, she wouldn't be able to trap the wolf. Since ancient times, the problem of mother-in-law and daughter-in-law had been the biggest problem. Her relationship with PEI Munian was already in jeopardy. If her relationship with her mother-in-law was not good, then it was almost impossible for her to live a good life with PEI Munian.

Furthermore, if she could make Mrs. PEI like her, she could even put in a good word for her to PEI Munian.

she's my mother-in-law. It's only right for me to be filial to her.

"You're right, but is it worth it? Boss PEI has been so close to that Xi Zhiwei recently. Does he still see you as his wife?"
