Chapter 163 A fight at the head of the bed and at the end of the bed (5)

Su Wanwan tossed and turned all night and couldn't sleep. When the sky was slightly bright, she faintly heard the sound of the car starting. Her whole body suddenly quivered and her eyes suddenly opened.

Had PEI Munian left?

Su Wanwan immediately got up from the bed. Without even putting on her shoes, she ran barefoot to the balcony of the room and looked down. Sure enough, she saw PEI Munian's car quickly driving away from the old house and gradually disappearing from her eyes.

Su Wanwan kept standing there, staring blankly until she couldn't see anything. All the strength in her body seemed to have been drawn away in an instant and she powerlessly collapsed.

She had wanted to deceive herself, but reality had cruelly poured cold water on her, making her completely sober up.

The nightmare tapir seemed to be about to wake up.

She didn't know how much time had passed, but the cold wind blew on her body. Su Wan was so cold that she shivered and returned to her senses in a trance.

She slowly walked back to her room, sat on the bed, and spaced out for a while. The sun rose, and the sunlight shone into the room, shining on her body. It was so warm, but it could not drive away the slightest bit of coldness from her body.

Su Wanwan looked at the clock on the wall. It was already eight o'clock. Mr. And Mrs. PEI would wake up soon. When Mrs. PEI woke up, she would definitely ask her about yesterday's situation. She didn't want her to know, so she didn't want her to be disappointed. Therefore, she forced herself to be alert. After quickly washing up, she went downstairs and asked the servant to pass on a message to Mrs. PEI before leaving.

Because su Wanwan left for a long time in the morning before she managed to get a taxi, it was already a little late when she returned to the company.

Xiaomei hurried over and said, "Sister Wanwan, why are you so late today? I tried calling you, but your phone was turned off."

Su Wanwan thought that her phone probably ran out of battery last night, so it turned off automatically.

Su Wanwan didn't want to explain so much to Xiaomei and only said indifferently, "Is there an emergency?"

"It's not an urgent matter, it's just that I'm sorry."

Xiaomei bit her lower lip and pointed at the chairman's office. She lowered her voice and said, "the chairman is looking for you. He has asked you several times. He wants you to go to his office as soon as you come back to the company."

Su Wanwan's beautiful eyebrows furrowed, and the bottom of her eyes was slowly stained with a touch of fatigue.

She didn't even need to think to know why her grandfather was looking for her. It was nothing more than to urge her to quickly get PEI Munian to set the wedding date. However, let alone the wedding, it was still a problem whether she could continue to maintain this marriage with PEI Munian.

She had been mentally and physically exhausted for the past few days and really had no strength to deal with her grandfather's overbearing attitude. She thought about it and said, "Xiaomei, go and tell Grandpa that I'm out with a guest today and won't be going back to the company. We can talk about it another day.

"Ah?"

Xiao Mei was a little surprised because Su Wanwan had always been extremely obedient to the chairman. It was impossible for her to go against his will. But today, he asked her to lie.

However, despite her surprise, she quickly reacted and nodded. okay, I understand.

After a short pause, Xiaomei asked again, "what's your plan for today, sis Wan?" are you really going to meet a client, or ...?"

Su Wanwan pondered for a moment and replied: "help me ask President Wang out.

Su Wanwan accompanied President Wang to eat at dynasty. During this time, she went to the bathroom. When she passed by a private room, the door was half open. She inadvertently glanced inside and saw PEI Munian sitting on the sofa. The woman sitting very close to him was Xi Zhiwei.
