Chapter 193 Walking on thin ice in happiness (3)

Su Wanwan's eyes widened and she looked at PEI Munian in surprise. why is there a Ferris wheel here?

There used to be a Ferris wheel in a large amusement park in L city. When she was young, father and mother su would often bring su Wanwan and her sister to the amusement park to play. Su Wanwan loved the Ferris wheel the most. She could sit high up and see the beautiful scenery.

It was just that the amusement park closed down due to poor management later on, so she could no longer sit on the Ferris wheel. She had always felt that it was a pity, but she did not expect that there would be one here.

a new amusement park is about to open here, so there will naturally be a Ferris wheel. PEI Munian replied matter-of-factly.

“An amusement park?”

Su Wanwan was stunned. L city had built such a large amusement park, how could she not hear any news?

However, if she remembered correctly, the PEI family group had bought this land two years ago. Did that mean that the amusement park was built by them?

Su Wanwan thought so and asked.

PEI Munian nodded. yes, I'm going to build a resort in the future.

“So that's how it is. That's great, I can ride the Ferris wheel again in the future.” Su Wanwan looked up at the huge Ferris wheel and the corners of her lips rose slightly.

PEI Munian turned his face and saw the smile on su Wanwan's lips. He smiled unconsciously too.

“Get out of the car.”

“Ah?”

PEI Munian laughed. didn't you want to take the Ferris wheel? Let's go sit.”

Su Wanwan's eyes suddenly lit up. can I? ” Isn't this Yingluo not open to the public?”

PEI Munian's smile deepened. I'm the boss and you're the lady boss. You're always open to US.

Oh right, Yingluo, she's the lady boss, Yingluo.

Why did her heart feel so sweet when he clearly did not say anything sweet?

An inconceivable thought suddenly flashed in su Wanwan's mind. This Ferris wheel couldn't have been specially built for her by PEI Munian, right?

PEI Munian and su Wanwan entered the park. The staff opened the door of one of the compartments on the Ferris wheel for them. The two of them sat in. After the door closed, the Ferris wheel slowly rose.

Su Wanwan was actually a little afraid of heights, but she also liked Ferris wheels, so she was a little nervous. PEI Munian's hand suddenly reached over and covered the back of her hand, his warm palm warming her. Su Wanwan looked at him, her big eyes flickering. The question in her mind just now unconsciously blurted out, " PEI Munian, this Ferris wheel, was it built for me? "

She had once told him that she liked the Ferris wheel. When she was unhappy, she would just sit on the Ferris wheel, climb to the top, and look at the beautiful world. All her unhappiness would disappear.

So he remembered her words. Now that she was unhappy, he would take her to the Ferris wheel?

PEI mu Nian looked into su Wan's bright eyes, her eyes were deep and unfathomable.

Back then, he had been so obsessed with buying this piece of land and getting people to build an amusement park and a Ferris wheel. In fact, he didn't know why. It was probably because he had never thought of giving up even after they had been separated all these years.

PEI Munian's lips curled up. what do you think? " she asked.

Since PEI Munian did not deny Wanwan, it meant that the Ferris wheel was really built because of her, Wanwan.

And this land was bought two years ago. In that case, in the past three years, she wasn't the only one who couldn't forget it. Was he the same?

Su Wanwan's heartbeat suddenly sped up and her voice trembled badly. PEI Munian, do you, Yueyue, like me? "
