Chapter 198 Walking on thin ice in happiness (8)

Su Wanwan was actually taking contraceptives.

Su Wanwan was already married to PEI Munian and Mrs. PEI had always been looking forward to having a grandson. She couldn't understand why Su Wanwan wanted to use birth control.

Could it be that Wanwan's relationship with brother mu Nian was still not good, so brother mu Nian did not want to have children with her? But that's not right. Brother mu Nian is about to hold a wedding and give me a status. If they were still in a Cold War, why would brother mu Nian do this?

If that wasn't the case, could it be that they had just gotten married, so they didn't want children for the time being? Do you want to spend more time with me?

However, this reason was a little far-fetched. The PEI family was not like an ordinary family. Su Wan was pregnant. Besides having to bear the child for ten months, if she didn't want to take care of the child herself after it was born, Mrs. PEI could take care of it or hire a nanny. It wouldn't affect them in the slightest. And as far as she knew, brother mu Nian liked children. He would not not not look forward to his own child.

In that case, could it be su Wanwan's problem alone?

Was it su Wanwan who didn't want to have brother mu Nian's child? That's why she took birth control pills?

Yes, it must be like this. Su Wanwan married brother mu Nian for the sake of her su Corporation. She didn't love brother mu Nian at all and only wanted to benefit from him. It was like this back then, and it was still the same now.

She was originally worried about how to tear su Wanwan's mask apart. Now that su Wanwan had exposed herself, this time, she could finally let brother mu Nian see this woman's true colors.

The more Xi Zhiwei thought about it, the more excited she became. Her eyes were burning with a bright light, and she could not wait to tell brother mu Nian about this.

Yu Jia reminded su Wanwan of some things to pay attention to and then couldn't help but say, "Wanwan, take less birth control pills if you can. It's not good for your body. You should let your man wear a condom. You can't just care about your own pleasure.

"Ahem."

Even if su Wanwan was already so intimate with PEI Munian, when she heard such blunt words, her cheeks couldn't help but blush. She didn't want to tell her the reason for her taking the medicine and only vaguely responded, "Yu Jia, thank you. Let's have dinner together after I'm done with my work.

"Alright, that's all for now. I'm hanging up."

After su Wanwan hung up the phone, she tidied herself up a little in front of the mirror and then took out a powder box to touch up her makeup to cover the paleness on her face. She looked left and right and after confirming that there was nothing wrong, she took her bag and left the bathroom.

As soon as su Wanwan left, Xi Zhiwei pushed the door open and walked out. She stared at su Wanwan's back and coldly curled her lips. Then, she took out her phone and quickly entered PEI Munian's phone number. Her finger was about to press the call button.

However, at the last moment, her hand still stopped.

No, she couldn't call and complain so rashly because she had no evidence. just now, she wasn't able to record su wan's words in time, so she was equivalent to having no evidence.

If she called brother mu Nian now and told him about su Wanwan taking birth control pills, brother mu Nian might not believe her. He might even think that she was spreading rumors and sowing discord!

If it was before, Xi Zhiwei naturally wouldn't think so much, but recently, she kept falling in front of su Wanwan and brother mu Nian's attitude towards her was not as good as before, so she couldn't be reckless.

So, what was she going to do?
