

Deeply 200

Chapter 200 Walking on thin ice in happiness (10)

Su Zhenhua took a deep breath and suppressed the anger in his heart. He took the medicine and put it in his mouth. Then, he picked up the cup and drank some water.

After calming down, Su Zhenhua leaned on the sofa, his eyes dark. No one knew what he was thinking.

Secretary su looked at him and asked tentatively, "Chairman, what do you want to do next? If you want miss to take the initiative to find you, as long as you pretend to be sick, miss will naturally soften her heart."

Su Zhenhua waved his hand.

He had never been worried about su Wan because her weakness was too easy to grasp. Feelings were her most fatal weakness. Although he resented su Wanwan's sister, he had to say that her sister was like the real su family. She made decisive decisions, was cold-hearted, and would rather I betray the world than let the world betray me. That was why he had forced her to marry someone she didn't love. She had married him, but he hadn't been able to get any benefits from her.

However, although su Wanwan was obedient, her work efficiency was not high. She always dragged things out when she was asked to do something.

He urgently needed to expand the company. After all, he was too old to waste time on Hanhan. He had to make the company stronger before he closed his eyes. Only then could he hand it over to his grandson and carry on the SU family's development.

I don't have time to wait anymore. I want to look for PEI Munian personally. I want to ask him when he'll be willing to fulfill his promise and hold the wedding!

In the PEI family's CEO's office.

PEI Munian leaned on the sofa with her legs crossed elegantly. She opened her eyes lazily and looked at Su Zhenhua, who had come without warning. She tugged at the corners of her lips and said lightly, "Old master su, may I know why you're here today?"

As his grandson-in-law, PEI Munian did not address him as grandfather. Instead, she only called him old master. This was a little disrespectful. He actually wanted to respect him, but when he thought of what he had heard him say, he could not bring himself to respect him.

He didn't blame him for wanting to gain benefits from him, but he blamed him for letting su Wan deceive his feelings. He also blamed him for educating su Wan into a puppet without feelings.

Su Zhenhua sensed PEI Munian's disrespect and his gaze stiffened. However, he could not afford to offend her, so he could only ignore her attitude. He smiled and said, actually, it's nothing important. It's just that you and Wanwan have been married for a while and we haven't had the time to meet properly. I happened to pass by today, so I decided to drop by to see you.

PEI Munian's lips curled up into a half-smile. old master su, if you have something to say, just say it directly. We are family, there's no need to beat around the bush.

Su Zhenhua also knew that PEI Munian was a smart person, and it was unnecessary to hide things from a smart person.

Su Zhenhua sat up straight, and the polite smile on his face faded. He lowered his voice and said seriously, "in that case, I might as well be direct. Mu Nian, you've been married to Wanwan for quite some time now. Perhaps you didn't mean to get married back then, and perhaps you still had reservations about Wanwan, but since you're already married, as a man, you have to take responsibility, don't you think so? Shouldn't you and Wanwan's wedding be on the agenda?"

Actually, PEI Munian could more or less guess the purpose of Su Zhenhua's visit today. He wanted to ask about the wedding, but he felt that his words were wrong, Wanwan.

He and Wanwan had already expressed their feelings for each other and were sure to start over. Why did he say that he still had reservations about Wanwan?
