

Deeply 204

204 She was really lying to him (4)

She even emphasized the words “for a long time.”

Su Wanwan felt particularly uncomfortable hearing this. These words seemed to be blessings, but in fact, there was a hidden meaning in them. But she also knew that if she was serious, she would lose. Su Wanwan curved her lips and replied with a smile: don’t worry, mu Nian and I will definitely live a long time. Not even a fly will be able to get in.

The smile on Xi Zhiwei’s face suddenly stiffened. Damn su Wan, she actually said she was a fly!

Xi Zhiwei’s eyes quickly filled with anger. However, she clenched her fist and pushed it back. Forget it, let her be smug now. Anyway, it will be later and she will cry.

A strange smile appeared on Xi Zhiwei’s face. She coldly glanced at su Wanwan and then snorted. She put on her sunglasses, stepped on her high heels, and left.

Su Wanwan looked at Xi Zhiwei’s back and thought about her smile just now. She didn’t know why, but she felt that something was wrong. But she thought about it and couldn’t think of anything.

Perhaps she was just overthinking.

No one picked up PEI Munian’s phone and it hung up automatically. Su Wanwan thought that he was probably still busy, so she didn’t continue to call. Instead, she composed a text message and sent it.

Xiaomei’s car drove over. She opened the door, got in, started the car, and drove away.

PEI Munian sat on the sofa and watched the phone on the table ring and vibrate. Su Wanwan’s name kept jumping on the screen, but he never reached out to take the phone.

The phone rang in the quiet office for a long time before it finally hung up. The screen slowly turned black, and the entire space returned to silence and darkness.

But soon, his phone rang again, and the screen lit up.

PEI Munian looked over. It was a text message from su Wanwan. She said, [hubby, I have a dinner appointment tonight and can’t accompany you to eat. You have to eat on time and don’t go hungry. I’ll go home as soon as possible.]

PEI Munian looked at him in a daze, and the corners of her lips curled up unconsciously. However, slowly, his smile faded bit by bit, until it became silent.

During dinner, su Wanwan would unconsciously look at her phone, but PEI Munian never replied to her message. She felt a little strange. Did PEI Munian not see the message?

Her action was seen by the director beside her and he couldn’t help but laugh. “Manager su, I saw that you’ve been staring at your phone the whole night. Were you waiting for your boyfriend’s call?”

Su Wanwan smiled. Because she had drunk some wine, her fair cheeks were flushed. She shook her head and said in a delicate voice, " I'm not waiting for my boyfriend's call. I'm waiting for my husband's call.

"Ah, so manager su is already married?" The director was surprised.

Su Wanwan smiled and gently nodded.

If it was in the past, she would not have said that. However, things were different now. Her relationship with PEI Munian had stabilized and she was indeed taken. It was just that she would not tell anyone that her husband was him before he announced it to the public.

I didn't expect this. I didn't expect that all the beautiful women are taken now. The director pretended to be heartbroken, and the others agreed.

Su Wanwan was still smiling, her smile full of happiness.

After the meal, Xiao Mei sent su Wanwan home. In the car, su Wanwan called PEI Munian again, but he still didn't pick up.

What was PEI Munian busy with? Why didn't she pick up the phone?

Su Wanwan returned to the villa. When she was changing her shoes at the entrance, she saw PEI Munian's shoes.
