208 She was really lying to him (8)

Su Wanwan sat up with the quilt in her arms and frowned in confusion. She saw how tired PEI Munian was yesterday. Why did she stay up late to deal with documents again?

She couldn't let him do as he pleased in the future. She had to grab him and sleep with him.

Su Wanwan got up and washed up. As soon as she came out of the bathroom, she heard her phone ring. She walked over to the bedside table, picked up the phone, and took a look. It was a call from the SU family's old mansion.

Su Wanwan's eyes narrowed.

This was not the first time she had quarreled with her grandfather, and it was not the first time he had said harsh words to her. However, under normal circumstances, she would always apologize to her grandfather very quickly and compromise with him because she cared more about him.

But this time, what her grandfather wanted to do had crossed her bottom line, so she was not willing to compromise.

Which mother in the world would not love her child?

So, ever since she left the office that day, she had been silent. She did not admit her mistake, did not compromise, and even avoided Grandpa until he was willing to give up on the idea.

Su Wanwan's hand didn't hesitate to press the reject button.

However, a few minutes later, his phone rang again. This time, it was nanny li.

Su Wanwan stared at the phone screen for a few seconds and frowned. Nanny li called directly. Maybe something happened at the old house. Although she was angry with Grandpa, she still couldn't let him go in her heart.

Su Wanwan hesitated for a moment but still picked up.

"Nanny li, what's the matter?"

As soon as su Wanwan's words fell, nanny Li's anxious voice came from the phone, " miss, it's not good. Old master fainted again during his morning exercise.

PEI family corporation, top floor.

Assistant Wu looked at the president's office through the floor-to-ceiling window. He saw that PEI Munian had been staring at the pills in front of him ever since she entered the office.

He looked at the time. It had been at least an hour. What exactly was so good to see?

PEI Munian did not know what she was hesitating about.

He took out this pill to verify if it was a birth control pill and whether su Wanwan lied to him. However, when he really wanted to take it to test, he was a little timid and flinched.

If it was really just a vitamin, the result would be a happy one, but what if it wasn't?

He couldn't even predict what he would do.

Heaven and hell, sometimes it was really just a matter of an instant.

PEI Munian closed her eyes and leaned back in her chair. He had not slept the entire night and was exhausted, but he could not fall asleep.

His mind involuntarily surfaced his past with su Wanwan.

Once, they were also so happy and so blissful. But no matter how happy and blissful they were, they couldn't resist su Wan's deception. He could never forget those words she said to him at that time. Every word and every sentence was like a sharp blade, ruthlessly stabbing into his heart, blood dripping.

Losing something after getting it, experiencing that kind of happiness before falling, that was true pain. It was better that Hanhan didn't get it from the beginning.

PEI Munian opened her eyes again, suppressing all her cowardice. His eyes were clear and cold. He pressed the internal line and said, "Assistant Wu, please come in for a moment."

Assistant Wu pushed the door open and entered quickly. She greeted him respectfully, "boss PEI.

PEI Munian pointed at the pills on the table and said, "go and find someone to see what medicine this is. Give me an answer by today."
