PEI Munian looked in the direction su Wanwan was pointing at and saw Su Zhenhua happily chatting with someone. PEI Munian curled her lips and shook her head. no need, the banquet is about to start. I have to go on stage to talk. It's about time to get ready.

"Then you should quickly go and prepare." Su Wanwan quickly said, " I can do it alone.

PEI Munian laughed. I'm not the only one who needs to prepare. You need to prepare as well. Did he forget? I'm going to announce something important between us later, so you have to be there."

Su Wanwan couldn't help but smile. She lowered her eyes a little shyly. I'm a little nervous all of a sudden. Remember to hold my hand later. I'm afraid I won't be able to stand steadily and it'll be embarrassing.

"Don't worry,"

PEI Munian lazily replied and then reached out to hold su Wanwan's waist and walked towards the banquet stage.

When they walked to the bottom of the stage, assistant Wu was standing there waiting for them. When she saw them coming, assistant Wu respectfully greeted su Wanwan, " young Madam.

Su Wanwan smiled and replied to him, " assistant Wu, long time no see.

Assistant Wu looked at su Wanwan's beautiful face and her dainty smile. He sighed slightly in his heart and a trace of pity flashed across his eyes, but it disappeared in an instant. Then, he looked at PEI Munian and said in a deep voice, " Boss PEI, I have something to report to you.

As he spoke, he glanced at su Wanwan from the corner of his eye.

Su Wanwan was interested. mu Nian, I'm a little thirsty. I'll go get something to drink.

"Yes." PEI Munian nodded and retracted her hand from her waist.

After su Wanwan left, assistant Wu said, " boss PEI, as you expected, there are many reporters outside, but I've asked people to stop them. Should I let them in? "

PEI Munian raised her eyebrows slightly and said in a neutral voice, " go on. They've put in so much effort. I can't let them waste their efforts.

understood. I'll pass down the order.

After assistant Wu finished speaking, he looked at PEI Munian's expressionless face and then subconsciously looked at su Wanwan's beautiful figure not far away. He hesitated for a moment and couldn't help but ask, " boss PEI, are you really going to announce that matter later? "

PEI Munian's dark eyes looked at assistant Wu indifferently. However, assistant Wu instantly felt a great pressure coming towards him, and he could not help but feel a chill down his spine.

ahem, ahem, ahem. Boss PEI, I just feel that the young Madam isn't that kind of person, ahem.

How could a person who only knew how to scheme and deceive have such a beautiful and pure smile?

However, PEI Munian's gaze was too terrifying. Assistant Wu's voice became softer and softer, so soft that she swallowed the rest of her words.

"Little Wu."

PEI Munian suddenly spoke, her voice unusually calm and hoarse. have you ever tried letting Wanwan be deceived again and again? Every time, when you're at your happiest and most beautiful moment, I ruthlessly throw you from heaven to hell."

Assistant Wu was stunned.

I've tried it before. And it's three times. The corners of PEI Munian's lips curled up, her eyes filled with bitterness. I've given her many chances, but she always chose to lie to me. I won't believe her anymore.

The banquet officially started. After the emcee gave an opening speech on the stage, he invited PEI Munian to speak on stage.

As usual, PEI Munian first talked about the company's current development and future expectations. Then, he paused and his black eyes swept across everyone below the stage. His gaze landed on su Wanwan and he smiled, " tonight, I'm going to announce something very important.
