

Deeply 233

233 I don't care for you anymore (3)

Su Wanwan still couldn't hold it in and two lines of tears flowed out. Fortunately, the lights in the room weren't turned on. PEI Munian couldn't see her sadness and couldn't see her current sorry state.

Su Wanwan forcefully choked down all the sobs in her throat. The hands hanging on both sides of her body clenched a little.

It seemed that there was nothing else to ask, but Su Wanwan still opened her mouth, "if it's a fake ran ran, why did you do this?"

PEI Munian seemed to find her words funny and chuckled. Su Wan, you should ask yourself this question, right? Haven't you always treated me like this?"

She had always been teasing him like this.

It turned out that he had never let go of the past, had never let go of the hatred he had for her, and had never loved her.

She had thought that he would be able to let go of what had happened three years ago. She had thought that her love could move him. She had thought that she could really find happiness, hold his hand, and grow old with him.

He only thought so, Yingluo.

Her tears fell like a broken string of pearls, but she tried her best to curve her lips and smile.

It's fine if you hate me. You can come at me if you want to, but Grandpa and the SU family are innocent. Grandpa is old, and he can't take it. The SU family will do no good to the PEI family. I beg you, let Grandpa and the SU family go. I can divorce you. I don't want anything, and you can also withdraw your investment. If you don't want to see me, wait until I've settled Grandpa and the SU family. I won't appear in front of you again.

"Innocent?"

PEI Munian suddenly opened her mouth and raised her voice. In the darkness, it was extremely cold, but it also hid a deep sorrow.

"Su Wanwan, who's innocent? The old master was innocent? Su clan is innocent? Do you know who called for the reporters today?"

Initially, PEI Munian did not want her to know about this. However, when he heard her calmly thinking about her grandfather and her company, he was furious.

She had never cared about his feelings, even at this moment. The first thing she thought of was never to fight for herself, but her family, her grandfather, and her company!

PEI Munian suddenly stood up from the sofa and walked to her in a few steps. She grabbed her arm with one hand and said fiercely, "Today's reporter was called by your most beloved grandfather. He wanted to announce the news of our marriage as soon as possible and wanted to create momentum for the SU group to obtain the greatest benefits. Su Wanwan, let me tell you, you and your grandfather, neither of you are innocent! The humiliation you received today was all your own doing!”

Did Wanwan’s grandfather find the reporters?

Su Wanwan’s eyes widened in shock. Her beautiful eyes were already wet with tears.

However, her surprise only lasted for a moment before it disappeared.

She wasn’t surprised that the reporters were hired by her grandfather, because she knew very well what kind of person her grandfather was.

Hence, PEI Munian was right. He brought humiliation upon himself, he brought it upon himself.

“Yeah, we asked for it.”

Su Wanwan was still smiling. She was clearly so sad, but she still tried her best to smile. She pushed away PEI Munian’s hand and took two steps back. She moved her lips as if she wanted to say something, but in the end, nothing came out.

She turned around and ran towards the door, afraid that she would break down in front of PEI Munian if she stayed any longer.
