Su Wanwan's hand that was hanging up the phone paused and hesitated.

She actually quite liked Mrs. PEI. She wasn't as snobbish and mean as the other rich ladies. Instead, she was very kind and kind. It was her fortune to have such a mother-in-law.

However, now that she and PEI Munian had come this far, this marriage was only in name. Mrs. PEI would no longer be her mother-in-law. She did not want to miss her too much. She was afraid that she would not be able to bear it. It was better to cut it off when the time came.

"Mom, it's Hanhan."

Mrs. PEI seemed to know what she was going to say and continued, "Wanwan, about the acquisition, perhaps you can ask your father-in-law for his opinion. Although he has retired, he can still ask about the company's matters.

Such a sentence directly made Su Wanwan unable to say the rejection that was on the tip of her tongue.

She was now anxious about the acquisition and she hadn't been able to think of any way. Mrs. PEI was such a big temptation in front of her. Su Wanwan hesitated and struggled for a few seconds, but in the end, she couldn't resist.

To be honest, businessmen always paid attention to profits. This acquisition case had no benefits to gain from the PEI family corporation. It was dispensable. PEI Munian's acquisition was only to take revenge on her. However, if she could talk to father PEI properly, he might let PEI Munian take back her decision.

She knew that this chance was very slim, but she had to seize and try any opportunity now.

Su Wanwan opened her mouth and slowly replied, "okay, mom, I will go back tonight.

yes, I'll ask the Butler to make your favorite dishes. Come back early.

After hanging up the phone, Mrs. PEI's eyes darted around before she continued to call PEI Munian.

After Su Wanwan left Yu Jia's house, she went to the company.

The company was already in a mess. Everyone was in a state of panic. Su Wanwan walked all the way and put away all her fragility. She maintained the calmness and strength on the surface, trying to stabilize the morale of the Army.

Su Wanwan's appearance did make the staff feel a little more at ease. However, it had no effect on the directors.

Su Zhenhua didn't hold a board meeting the entire day yesterday and didn't give any countermeasures. The directors' patience was almost at its limit. And today, it wasn't Su Zhenhua who attended, but Su Wanwan. The directors couldn't sit still all of a sudden and slammed the table one after another.

One of the directors glared at su Wanwan and didn't hide his dissatisfaction at all, " manager su, what's the matter with the chairman? Now that the company is facing such a big crisis, he's hiding and not coming out, only letting you come out? Is he worthy of all the support we gave him?"

the chairman is having some health issues and is resting at home today, so he asked me to deal with this matter on behalf of him. With the company's current situation, it's not the time for us to have internal disputes. We should unite and work together to deal with the outside world, right? " Su Wanwan tried her best to appease the directors 'emotions.

I know that you're very uneasy about what happened to the company. It's indeed our mistake, so we'll do our best to remedy it. I hope that you can give me some time on account of your many years of friendship with Grandpa. I'll definitely think of a way to save the company!

In the evening, su Wanwan drove the car and headed towards the PEI residence.

The Board of Directors had only given her three days to think of a solution. If she couldn't come up with a solution within three days, they wouldn't care about their old relationship anymore!
