

Deeply 253

253 I just like him (3)

After Mrs. PEI locked the door, she kept an eye on the room. At first, there were some slight sounds in the room, but then it became quiet.

Mrs. PEI was outside, both expectant and nervous. She was looking forward to them being alone in a space so that they could talk and resolve any conflicts. However, there was no sound coming from inside, and she didn't know what they were doing.

Mrs. PEI waited patiently for the whole night. Early the next morning, she quickly came to inspect. She tried the door lock and it was still locked. She put her ear to the door and listened. It was still quiet inside.

Although she couldn't determine what was going on inside, they didn't think of a way to get out the entire night. After all, with her son's personality, if he really wanted to leave, there was no way he could trap him. So Wanwan might have made up with him already. After all, they were husband and wife. How could there be so many conflicts between husband and wife? they always fought at the head of the bed and made up at the end of the bed.

Thinking of this, Mrs. PEI felt a little relieved. She smiled and asked the servant to bring the key to unlock the door.

Some noises came from the door, Breaking the Silence in the room.

su wanwan moved her stiff eyes and slowly looked at the door. the door was gently pushed open and mrs. pei's head quietly poked in.

Su Wanwan stood up at once.

PEI Munian also lifted her eyelids and looked over.

Mrs. PEI originally wanted to secretly observe the situation inside. She didn't expect that when she poked her head in, she would see PEI Munian sitting on the bed and su Wan sitting on the sofa. The two of them were so far apart and the atmosphere in the room was extremely depressing. Her heart thumped. It seemed that Wanwan's matter didn't develop as she imagined! On the contrary, the situation didn't seem right.

Mrs. PEI reflexively retreated and wanted to lock the door again, but PEI Munian had already taken a few steps forward and grabbed the door. With a strong force, she pulled the door open directly. Her brows were tightly knitted as she said in a low and cold voice, "mom, that's enough. How many more times do you want to play this trick? However, it's useless, so you don't have to waste your time!"

Mrs. PEI was caught red-handed and felt a little awkward. Her eyes flickered slightly as she explained weakly, "this ran ran, I'm just giving you guys some space to talk and resolve your conflicts.

After a pause, she seemed to feel that there was something wrong with his words and could not help but say, "Wait, how many more times do you mean we want to play?"

PEI Munian's eyes seemed to be hiding ice. Her handsome face was tense and full of gloom.

Madam PEI looked at his expression and suddenly understood what he was talking about. She said in surprise, son, you, you think Wanwan and I colluded with each other about Wanwan's matter? "

PEI Munian's lips curled up coldly. isn't that so? "

Mrs. PEI couldn't help but be stunned. She didn't think that PEI Munian would have this misunderstanding. Mrs. PEI was about to explain when su Wanwan's voice suddenly rang out, " mom, I'll be leaving first.

After su Wanwan finished speaking, she didn't wait for Mrs. PEI to answer. She walked straight to the door, bypassed Mrs. PEI, and left.

Mrs. PEI looked at su Wanwan's calm and determined back and couldn't help but panic. She didn't have time to explain anything and only anxiously said to PEI Munian, " "Mu Nian, what are you doing? Hurry up and chase after him!"
