

Deeply 261

261 I just like him (11)

Su Zhenhua's words were straightforward, and his voice seemed to contain anger. Su Wanwan's heart couldn't help but skip a beat. She subconsciously straightened her back. ye, Grandpa, what's the matter? "

Su Zhenhua didn't seem to want to say much over the phone, so he said coldly, " "We'll talk when we get back!"

After saying that, Su Zhenhua hung up the phone without any explanation.

Su Wanwan listened to the beeping sound in her ear and then thought of grandpa's cold voice. The uneasiness in her heart grew. The company's situation was so bad these few days, but she didn't mention a word to Grandpa. Could it be that he knew about the company's situation and knew that she was lying to him, so he was so angry?

Su Wanwan's eyes couldn't help but float with a touch of worry. She wasn't worried that Grandpa would be angry with her, but she was worried that the company's situation would once again stimulate grandpa's body.

Su Wanwan's hand couldn't help but clench her phone tightly. She turned her face sideways and said to Gong Lingyu, " Lingyu, I have something urgent to attend to and need to go home. Could you please stop the car by the side? "

Gong Lingyu saw that su Wanwan's face was still pale and ugly, and his brows furrowed even more. Wanwan, I'd better take you to the hospital first before going home.

"Lingyu, I've already said that I'm really fine. Moreover, grandfather's health isn't good, and I'm worried about him. I have to rush back now."

Gong Lingyu looked at su Wanwan in silence for a few seconds. When he saw the stubbornness and persistence in su Wanwan's eyes, he couldn't help but sigh. okay, you don't have to go to the hospital, but at least let me take you home.

Su Wanwan opened her mouth and subconsciously wanted to refuse. She didn't want to trouble him, but before she could say it, Gong Lingyu seemed to know what she wanted to say and spoke first, " don't refuse me. I really don't feel at ease letting you go alone.

Su Wanwan's words that were already on the tip of her tongue stopped. She lowered her eyes and didn't want to reject him again. She nodded gently and replied in a low voice, " then I'll have to trouble you.

Gong Lingyu turned the steering wheel and drove toward the SU residence.

Although su Wanwan was awake, her head was still dizzy and the wound on her forehead seemed to be pricked by fine needles, making people feel very uncomfortable.

Su Wanwan rolled down the car window and the wind gently blew in. She took a few deep breaths and seemed to be relieved. Then, she leaned back in the chair.

She had only wanted to rest for a while to relieve her headache, but perhaps she was too tired, her eyelids became heavy and she fell asleep.

The car arrived at the gate of the SU residence. Gong Lingyu stopped the car and looked at su Wanwan.

She slept quietly with light breathing. Her complexion was extremely bad, and her small face was so white that even the sun couldn't bring her a trace of warmth. Gong Lingyu's heart was stabbed fiercely, and he couldn't help but lean over and gently caress her cheek with his large palm.

Under a big tree not far away, a black car was parked. There were some fallen leaves on the roof of the car. It seemed to have been parked there for a long time.

The chauffeur raised his eyes and looked at PEI Munian, who had been sitting silently in the back seat, through the rear mirror. He said respectfully, " young master, we've already waited for a night. Do you want to continue waiting or go back to the company now? "

PEI Munian's eyelids lifted slightly, her brows filled with fatigue.

He had a dinner appointment yesterday and had a few drinks. For some reason, he had the chauffeur drive the car here.

He actually didn't know why he had to stay here foolishly for a night. He clearly hated su Wanwan and didn't want to see her.

PEI Munian laughed at herself and was about to say that it was time to go back to the company when she looked up and her eyes suddenly froze.
