Su Zhenhua fell to the ground. Su Wanwan's Black pupils suddenly contracted and she knelt beside him in shock, her face full of fear. Grandpa, are you okay? " Grandpa?"

Su Zhenhua's face was blue and purple, and his breathing was rapid. He opened his mouth to say something, but he could not make a sound.

Su Wanwan didn't dare to move Su Zhenhua's body at will. She only held his hand tightly and cried, " Grandpa, don't be afraid. Hang in there. I'll call someone, I'll call someone now!

Su Wanwan gritted her teeth, forcefully propped up her trembling body, and ran towards the SU residence. someone, someone, come quickly!

The servants were excited and ran out one after another. Nanny Li Ran in front and saw su Wanwan's pale face. She said worriedly, " "Miss, what happened?"

Grandpa, Grandpa, he's been angered by my Xuxu. Call the doctor, call the doctor!

"What?"

Nanny li was surprised for a moment. She quickly turned around and ordered a servant to make a phone call. Then, she called a few servants and the driver and went straight to the door.

A few people carried Su Zhenhua back to the house in a flurry. The doctor rushed over and performed emergency treatment on Su Zhenhua. Su Wanwan stood by the bed and looked at her grandfather's pale face, unable to stop her tears.

She clearly knew that her grandfather could not take such a blow, but why could she not control herself? if something really happened to her grandfather, what was she going to do?

Nanny li reached out and gently hugged su Wanwan, comforting her: "Miss, don't worry too much. Master is a lucky man and will definitely be fine."

Su Wanwan unconsciously held nanny Li's hand tightly, as if she was holding onto the last life-saving straw.

After a while, Su Zhenhua's eyelashes moved, as if he was slowly waking up from his coma. The doctor wiped the sweat from his forehead and heaved a sigh of relief.

Su Wanwan quickly stepped forward and asked, " doctor, how's Grandpa? "

The doctor straightened his body and faced su Wan. His expression was extremely serious and his tone was reproachful. miss su, I've been repeatedly reminding you that old master SU's body can't be agitated. It would be very dangerous if he fainted. Why did you let him have such a big emotional fluctuation? do you know that if you were a little later just now, old master su might never wake up again!

Su Wanwan's hand suddenly covered her mouth, and her tears flowed more violently. I'm sorry, I didn't mean it. I'm sorry, Yueyue, I really didn't mean it.

The doctor looked at su Wanwan's appearance and couldn't get angry anymore. He sighed softly and his voice eased, " miss su, you really have to be careful in the future. If there's a next time, no one may be able to do anything.

Su Wanwan sobbed and could only nod hard.

It was night.

Su Wanwan leaned against the railing and stood there in a daze. She didn't move for a long time, just like a statue.

Nanny li approached her from behind and looked at her delicate figure. Her eyes were full of heartache. She said in a low voice, " miss, old master is awake.

Su Wanwan suddenly stood up straight and returned to her senses. She was about to walk towards Su Zhenhua's room when she was stopped by nanny Li's next sentence.

She said, " but old master doesn't want to see you unless you promise to apologize to young master PEI.

Su Wanwan's hand suddenly clenched tightly. Her voice was very hoarse, as if she had gravel in her mouth. What if I don't agree, Yueyue? "

Nanny li furrowed her brows in embarrassment, but she had to say, " old master said ... Said ran ran, so even if he's dead, you don't need to come and see him.
