276 Repeating the same trick (10)

PEI Munian was still puzzled earlier. With his alcohol tolerance, it was impossible for him to be so dizzy that he could not walk after just a few glasses. There was also the strange heat in his body. He was not as drunk as he was, so he could still tell that this heat was not normal.

When su Wanwan's body rubbed against his body, this kind of heat was even more intense. His body suddenly surged with an extremely strong desire. The muscles of his whole body couldn't help but tense up tightly. His face also turned ugly to the extreme in an instant.

The abnormal heat in his body and the abnormal desire at this moment couldn't have appeared out of thin air. He didn't eat anything that night except for drinking.

Then, was there an aphrodisiac in the wine?

It turned out that the dinner tonight was not a so-called apology, but a trap to plot against him again.

He never thought that Su Zhenhua and su Wanwan would dare to play the same trick again and so brazenly. Last time, they sent him directly to his room and here, they directly drugged him.

What did they think he was? Were they fools who would let them do whatever they wanted?

What was she, su Wanwan? She had already spoken so ruthlessly to him, but she still turned around and continued to sleep with him for concubine su. How ridiculous was he in her eyes?

PEI Munian suddenly laughed. The laughter was very short, but it was cold and terrifying. su Wan, do you only know how to use this trick? "

Su Wanwan didn't know if it was because of the aftereffects of the alcohol, but her entire brain was muddled and dizzy. She was also suddenly questioned by PEI Munian. She simply didn't know what had happened and replied vaguely, " what are you saying? What move?"

Look, no matter what, she was always so innocent. Even if the truth was right in front of her, she could still pretend that she didn't know what happened.

Once, he had tried very hard to believe in her. He believed that she was innocent, that she was innocent. Even if she really lied to him, he would be willing to lie to her for the rest of his life.

However, she couldn't even fulfill such a small wish. She could only rely on his love, his reluctance, his step by step concession, and his insatiable insatiability to get what she wanted from him, and then abandon him again!

A red flame quickly burned in the bottom of PEI Munian's eyes. He glared at her, as if he wanted to tear her whole body apart. His voice was close to a low roar, " su Wan, are you pretending to be innocent again? Do you know how disgusting you look? if you dare to admit to your actions, I'll f * cking admire you!"

Su Wanwan was shocked by PEI Munian's roar and her dazed consciousness recovered a little. She looked at the man's extremely angry face and her back couldn't help but feel cold. She really didn't understand what she did wrong again.

"What did I do? I don't even know what you're talking about."

"You're still pretending, aren't you?"

PEI Munian curled her lips coldly and felt that it was extremely ridiculous. Really, he had never seen a woman who was better at pretending than su Wanwan. She was even better at acting than those actors in the entertainment industry!

PEI Munian's hand that was holding su Wanwan's wrist tightened, as if she was going to crush her bones. He freed one hand and clamped su Wanwan's jaw with force. With a hateful tone, he said word by word, "su Wan, last time you and your grandfather schemed against me and successfully made me marry you. So you've tasted the flavor of the past and think that even if we do it again, I'll still foolishly buy it, right?"

Last time, grandfather plotted against Wanwan?
