Before PEI Munian mentioned the drug, su Wanwan thought that the strange symptoms in her body were due to the aftereffects of alcohol. Now, she clearly understood that it wasn't the effect of alcohol at all. It was because of the haze.

Although she was retorting against PEI Munian, the feeling in her body was cruelly reminding her that PEI Munian's words were true. He had been drugged, and so had she. And the one who had planned all this was her grandfather, Wanwan.

She already had an answer in her heart, but she couldn't accept it. Even if Grandpa didn't care about her and missed concubine su, she was still his biological granddaughter. How could he hurt her like this without any feelings?

She wanted to ask him. She wanted to confront him face to face and ask him clearly. She wanted to ask him why he could be so cruel and heartless!

However, no matter how sad or angry she was, she could not stop the heat that was surging up in her body. It was as if it was gnawing at her, taking away her consciousness bit by bit, leaving only her instinctive reaction.

When PEI Munian kissed her, it was as if a cool breeze had fallen on her. She could not help but close her eyes, wanting to get closer to him and hug him to relieve the devouring heat on her body. Her hand that was holding PEI Munian's lapels slowly loosened and then slowly wrapped around his shoulders, subconsciously responding to him.

Su Wanwan's actions seemed to add a raging fire between the two of them. PEI Munian's kiss on su Wanwan became stronger and stronger. Her hand caressed su Wanwan's body, and then with force, she tore her shirt open.

when her naked skin touched the air, su wanwan's whole body couldn't help but shiver, and the dazed look in her eyes faded by half.

She opened her eyes and looked at the man on top of her. When she saw her own passionate and active posture, it was as if a basin of cold water had been poured on her head. It was as if she was in the North Pole.

If she really lost control and had sex with PEI Munian today, not only would PEI Munian not believe her innocence, even she would not have the face to explain that she was innocent.

Even if she knew that she could no longer clear her name in PEI Munian's heart and was already the most sinister, despicable, and calculative woman, she still wanted to let him know that she had never done anything! She did have a motive for marrying him, but that marriage was not part of her scheme. No!

Su Wanwan's hands clenched tightly. Then, she used all the strength in her body and pushed PEI Munian.

PEI Munian was caught off guard. She was pushed by her and her body fell straight to the side. Su Wanwan forced herself to get up from the bed, but just as her feet touched the ground, she fell back softly. That little bit of consciousness was almost going to be destroyed in the next second.

Su Wanwan didn't even think about it. She directly raised her arm, put it to her mouth, and bit down hard.

She didn't show any mercy and bit down with great force. Her teeth bit through her skin, and the tip of her tongue tasted a strong fishy smell.

PEI Munian fell to the side and was stunned for a moment. However, she was quickly shocked by su Wan's actions. He saw her biting his arm fiercely and saw bright red blood flowing down her snow-white arm bit by bit. It was a shocking sight!

PEI Munian's Black eyes widened and her pupils suddenly contracted. He quickly reached out and pulled her hand away, scolding her sternly, " su Wan, are you crazy? What are you doing?"
