

Deeply 282

282 Her chance (4)

Su Wanwan lowered her eyes. The light in her eyes was shattered and coldness slowly spread all over her body.

If Grandpa really treated her like this, if he really didn't care about their kinship at all, then Yueyue wouldn't continue to be so foolish. She loved him, and she didn't ask him to like her that much. At least, she was his only family, and he treated her as family.

Su Wanwan sniffed hard and suppressed the sourness in her nose. She didn't answer Gong Lingyu's question but asked in a low voice, "Lingyu, when can I leave?"

Gong Lingyu looked at su Wanwan's pale face and felt helpless. Wanwan, can you not hide everything in your heart and carry everything on your own? How much can you take? Do you know that I'm scared of you?"

Gong Lingyu clenched his fists tightly and lowered his voice. However, he was very serious. I'll be very worried about you.

Su Wanwan became silent. There were many things that she didn't want to shoulder alone, but what could she do? After losing her parents, she thought that she still had her sister. After her sister left, she thought that she still had her grandfather. However, her grandfather did not care about her. He was more concerned about the SU group. After that, she married PEI Munian. She thought that she still had PEI Munian. In the end, PEI Munian was not hers.

In the end, she was still alone. If she couldn't hold on, she would have collapsed long ago.

"Lingyu, thank you. I'm very lucky to have met a friend like you."

Friends

Su Wanwan was always so smart. One sentence, one word, was enough to stop all his restlessness and make him stop in place, forever separated from her.

Gong Lingyu's thin lips were tightly pursed. For a moment, he really wanted to disregard everything and make it clear to su Wanwan that he never just wanted to be her friend. He was extremely regretful. When she proposed to cancel the engagement and break up, he didn't try his best to redeem it. If he had been more determined and persistent, maybe they wouldn't have missed each other.

He opened his mouth, wanting to say something, but his words were stuck in his throat. No matter how hard he tried, he couldn't make a sound.

Of course, he could confess his feelings to her, but once Hanhan broke through this layer of paper, she would definitely not let him stay by her side. They could no longer be friends.

He didn't want to be so weak, but this weakness was the only reason he could stay by her side.

Gong Lingyu smiled bitterly. that's right, we're friends.

Gong Lingyu took a deep breath, suppressed the bitterness in his heart, and answered su Wanwan's previous question, " the doctor has already given you an injection to remove the drug in your body. There should still be some residual effects now. When you recover your spirit, if there are no other problems, you can leave. Are you feeling uncomfortable anywhere? "

I'm not comfortable, Yingying.

In addition to feeling that her body was still a little weak, su Wanwan only felt a swelling pain on her forehead, especially at the place where she was injured before. It hurt the most.

However, it was probably just a residual effect. Su Wanwan gently shook her head. I don't feel uncomfortable anymore. I'll lie down for a while. I want to go back. I'm sorry, I have something to do. I want to find my grandfather.

"Wanwan, you don't have to be so anxious, right? You can rest here for the night and leave when you're completely fine."

"No, I have something urgent to attend to. I must see my grandfather immediately!"
