

Deeply 285

285 Her chance (7)

Su Wanwan's voice trembled badly, but she still finished her words clearly. She wanted to say it countless times, thought of this kinship countless times, but forced back the words that reached her mouth. Today, she could finally say them.

Su Zhenhua suddenly stood up from the sofa. His eyes were extremely cold and pierced her like a needle. His finger pointed at her and trembled fiercely because of his anger. su Wanwan, don't forget that everything you have now is because of the SU family. I brought it to you. After your parents left, I took you in. I raised you. You dare to speak to me like this now! Do you want to learn from your ungrateful sister?"

"I'm very grateful that you took me and my sister in, but we also paid the price, didn't we? My sister could have married the person she loved, but you forcefully broke them apart. My sister was forced to marry someone she didn't love, and I ..."

Su Wanwan's hands that were hanging on both sides of her body slowly clenched, and her eyes were full of sorrow. you're the same. You destroyed my love.

If she hadn't married PEI Munian, she might have felt indignant and regretful. But at least, in PEI Munian's heart, she was still the proud and beautiful girl from back then, and not the lowly, ridiculous, ugly, and dirty woman she was now.

Su Wanwan sniffed hard and squeezed out a smile. Grandpa, I'm very tired. I can't listen to you and live anymore. In the future, I'll only do what I want to do. You take care of yourself, Wanwan.

After that, su Wanwan didn't wait for Su Zhenhua's reply and directly turned to leave.

Su Zhenhua's roar came from behind her, and The Sound of Things Falling. Su Wanwan's footsteps paused for a second, but she still strode out.

Nanny li was awoken by the noise and ran out in her pajamas. When she saw su Wanwan coming down from upstairs, she was worried and asked, " "Miss, what's going on? Did you quarrel with the old master again?"

Su Wanwan didn't answer nanny Li's question. She just looked at her and said lightly, " nanny Li, I probably won't be back for a while. Help me look after Grandpa.

Nanny li frowned and disapproved, " "Miss, what kind of trouble is this that you have to run away from home?"

Su Wanwan was silent for a moment and curved her lips. I'm leaving.

Su Wanwan walked around nanny li and walked towards the gate. Nanny li looked at her determined back and her heart was full of sadness and sorrow. When the eldest miss left, she was also this determined. She didn't expect that now the second miss also left, Xuxu.

After su Wanwan walked out of the SU house, she stood there and looked up at the starry sky. Today's sky was unusually dark and there weren't many stars. The dark curtain pressed down, making people's hearts particularly heavy.

However, she suddenly felt enlightened. In the past year, she had carried too much on her shoulders. She had carried her parents' last wishes, her grandfather's expectations, and her sister's willfulness. She had placed herself in the smallest, smallest position, in a place that she could not see herself, and worked hard to live for others.

She had thought that as long as she worked hard, everything would be fine.

However, she had tried so hard, but in the end, she got nothing. Instead, she had ruined herself.

That was why she wanted to be willful for once. She wanted to be independent for once. Didn't her sister always say that she wasn't like her sister? If her sister was here, she would have told her proudly, "sister, I'm like your little sister now."

Su Wanwan slept in the hotel room for three days and three nights. And in these three days, another big news that shook the whole city appeared again.
