

Deeply 294

294 Her chance (16)

Su Wanwan looked at the phone screen with teary eyes and looked at the names jumping on it. Her hand firmly grasped the bed sheet. The next second, she lost control and her fingers firmly pressed the reject button on the screen.

She didn't want to hear Xi Zhiwei speak, not a single word!

Xi Zhiwei persevered and made a few calls before she finally stopped. However, a text message came in immediately after.

Su Wanwan looked at the missed message on the screen, her fingers trembling. After a long time, she slowly clicked it open.

There were only eight short words on it, but they were the words that made her fall into endless darkness!

—

Xi Zhiwei looked at her phone and her lips slowly curved. She didn't believe that su Wanwan could still be so indifferent after reading this message. She didn't call her again but composed another message. She sent a time and place and asked to meet her. She knew that she would definitely come.

After sending the message, she deleted the message from her phone and put it back on the bedside table. She turned her face and looked through the bedroom door, at the man sleeping on the sofa in the living room.

As she looked at it, two lines of tears fell unconsciously.

She thought that she would never have the chance to get close to him in this life because he had never given anyone any chance except su Wan. From a young age, she had tried so hard to get close to him, to make him pay attention to her, to fall in love with her, but she never got his eyes.

He was good to her and pampered her only because of her brother. She was her brother's sister, so she was his sister as well.

However, she didn't want to be his sister at all. She wanted to be PEI Munian's wife and be the one who could accompany him for the rest of his life, but he kept rejecting her at the door.

And that su Wanwan, repeatedly hurt him, repeatedly made him sad, but he didn't seem to see it. He was still so infatuated with her and simply didn't listen to her words.

She let him see su Wan's true face, but he still didn't give up. At that moment, she really hated PEI Munian a little, but she hated su Wan even more. If it wasn't for su Wan, everything wouldn't be like this now!

That day, ran ran saw PEI Munian and su Wan at the black pool. She saw them eating in the private room. She saw that Su Zhenhua, this old man, had been trying to be their peacemaker, trying to ease their relationship.

It wasn't easy for her to see their relationship break down. If they made up just like that, how could she bear it?

She returned to her private room in a daze and listened to the big bosses, investors, and directors drinking and bragging. Then, she accidentally heard one of the big bosses say that someone had been asking about PEI Munian's whereabouts recently and that person had said that he would settle the score with her.

At that time, she didn't know what was wrong with her. In a moment of heat, she had actually sent someone to inform that person.

At that time, she only thought of letting these people disrupt PEI Munian and su Wanwan's reconciliation banquet. She didn't want them to reconcile. If she could teach su Wanwan a lesson at the same time, that would be even better. However, no one thought that Wanwan's matter would develop to this point.

Every time she closed her eyes and thought of that heart-wrenching moment, she really wanted to die. Everything she had, she wanted to leave it for PEI Munian. However, it was gone. It was taken away just like that.

However, how could she die so easily? she had saved PEI Munian. She had saved him. Even if he was staying here to accompany her out of guilt, she could still see her chance!