299 The only thing I can't give you (5)

She didn't know when the sky turned dark and the streetlights on both sides of the street lit up. Su Wanwan looked at the top floor of the PEI family group building. The light was still faintly on there. Was PEI Munian still there?

All of a sudden, she wanted to rush up to him and ask him about what had happened back then. Why did he blame her, why did he hate her, why did he not like her, and what did she do wrong? What did she do wrong?

She had not done anything, so why did he blame her? why did he completely exclude her from his world because of this?

It was not fair, it was not fair at all!

However, her feet seemed to be nailed to the ground, and she couldn't move.

If she really had the courage to face it and ask, she would not have used such a childish and ridiculous method to regain her self-esteem in front of PEI Munian back then. She was really afraid to hear from the mouth of the person she loved the most how much he hated her and wanted her to die too!

She had always been brave, but this was the only thing that made her weak and inferior.

Su Wanwan stood in the same place for a long time, like a wooden person, motionless, until that familiar tall figure walked out of the company's Gate.

Su Wanwan was shocked and subconsciously hid behind a big tree next to her, hiding her body behind the wide trunk.

PEI Munian walked out of the company's entrance and stood there, waiting for the chauffeur to drive the car over. For some reason, his heart skipped a beat and his dark eyes subconsciously looked at the opposite road, as if something was guiding him.

His dark eyes scanned the road across the street. It was empty. This was the business center. At night, there were basically no people.

He was about to look away when he suddenly saw a red dress behind a big tree. It was flying in the night wind, adding a touch of color to the dark night.

Who was standing behind that tree?

PEI Munian furrowed her brows in confusion, but she did not think much about it. The car drove over and he took the keys from the chauffeur. He opened the door and sat in the driver's seat. He started the engine and joined the flow of traffic.

Su Wanwan hid behind a tree. When she saw PEI Munian's car arrive, she paused for half a second and immediately stopped a car to let the driver follow PEI Munian's car.

It was impossible for her not to mind what Xi Zhiwei had said to her today. However, she did not want to listen to Xi Zhiwei's words and did not want to see the messy news. She wanted to see with her own eyes if PEI Munian and Xi Zhiwei were really together and if they had really had an intimate relationship.

If it's true, if she really saw that kind of thing, su Wan's hands clenched tightly, her eyes were dead.

Su Wanwan's car and PEI Munian's car maintained a certain distance. One in front and one behind, they drove on the streets of the city. Su Wanwan kept looking closely at the direction of PEI Munian's car. His direction was obviously in the direction of Xi Zhiwei's apartment.

It's so late and he's still looking for Xi Zhiwei.

No, maybe not? Perhaps he was going somewhere and it just so happened to be in that direction? Before the car had truly stopped, she would not jump to conclusions.

However, PEI Munian's car eventually drove into the neighborhood where Xi Zhiwei's apartment was located and stopped in front of her apartment.

Su Wanwan sat in the car and stared blankly at PEI Munian as she got out of the car, locked the car, and strode into the apartment building.
