309 I need to give her a status (5)

Su Wan raced against time. She met with those shareholders one by one and bought the shares in their hands. In the latter half a month of tug-of-war, PEI's group owned forty-nine percent of the shares. Although su Wan tried her best to speak and think of all ways, she only received one out of four percent of the shares. In other words, once the PEI's group used the shares in their hands to request a board meeting, then SU's group would officially change owners.

She had worked so hard for so long, and she didn't want to see such an ending. What should she do?

Su Wanwan frowned and scratched her head. She suddenly thought of something and quickly pressed the internal phone. Xiaomei, come in for a while.

“Alright,” he said.

Xiaomei pushed the door open and walked to the office. She said softly, " sister Wanwan, is there something you need from me? "

Su Wanwan nodded and said, "last time, I asked you to investigate that mysterious person. How did it go?" Do you know who it is?"

Xiao Mei lowered her head dejectedly and shook her head. sister Wanwan, I'm sorry. I didn't manage to find out who it was. His identity was too secretive and no one knew about it.

su wanwan couldn't help but frown. " you can't find any information at all? You don't even have a phone number?"

"Ah, I did find a phone number, but I don't know if it's correct."

“Whether it’s right or wrong, write down this number and give it to me first. Then, you can continue to investigate. Don’t let any information slip by. Whether we can win this battle or not depends on the 10% shares in his hands!”

“Understood!”

After Xiaomei went out, su Wanwan looked at the phone number she wrote down and her slender fingers tapped on it. God bless, this number is correct. God bless, this person will be easier to talk to. God bless, she can successfully protect the SU family!

Su Wanwan took a deep breath, picked up the phone, and dialed this number.

For the first time, su Wanwan felt that this beeping sound was so long, as if a century had passed. Her fingers unconsciously wrapped around the phone line, and her heart was nervous and uneasy.

The phone rang for a while. Just as su Wanwan was about to be disappointed, it finally connected.

Su Wanwan's spirit suddenly jolted. She cleared her voice and said, " Hello, I'm su Wanwan from su enterprise. May I ask if you're Wanwan, the Wanwan who bought 10% of our company's shares? sorry, are you a Sir or a lady? "

It was very quiet on the other end of the phone. No one spoke. If it wasn't for the fact that su Wanwan could still hear the weak breathing, she would have thought that the phone had been hung up. She couldn't help but speak again, " Hello? Are you still listening? Hello?"

"I'm here,"

The person on the other end spoke. His voice seemed to be deliberately lowered, but it also seemed a little deep, but it was still very pleasant to the ear.

so you're Sir. I'm sorry to call you. I want to talk to you about the shares. If possible, I hope you can sell all your shares to me. Please.

"Let's talk when we meet."

The man directly interrupted su Wanwan's words and gave her an address, " come here tomorrow morning. After that, he hung up the phone without any explanation.

".....?"

Su Wanwan blinked. This address, why did this person ask her to meet at the hotel? He wouldn't have any bad intentions, right?
