Su Wanwan suddenly reached out and patted her cheek, secretly disdaining herself. What was she thinking? this kind of thing was supposed to be discussed face to face. He asked to meet at the hotel, so maybe he's staying at the hotel.

Of course, if he really had any bad intentions, it wouldn't be that easy, okay? if he dared to, she would beat him up until his teeth were all over the ground!

Su Wanwan adjusted her thoughts and returned her attention to business. Although her sister lent her a large sum of money, she also spent most of it. Tomorrow, she wanted to buy that 10%. The money was a bit tight and her sister probably didn't have any money. She couldn't ask her sister for more, so tomorrow, she could only try her best to move that man with her sharp tongue and sincere heart!

su wanwan had a good night's rest and set off the next day in high spirits.

When she arrived at the entrance of the hotel room, su Wan was still somewhat vigilant. She first called Xiao Mei and reported her location. Then, she told her that if she didn't give her any information within three hours, she would call the police!

After she was ready, she tidied her clothes and combed her hair. She took a light breath, raised her hand, and knocked on the door.

The sound of footsteps quickly came from behind the door, and then the door was pulled open from the inside. Su Wanwan straightened her back and said softly, " Hello, Mr. Wanwan? "

It wasn't a man standing inside the door, but a woman in a business suit. She was smiling at her.

Su Wanwan's head suddenly became a little muddled. I, did I find the wrong place? " When I called you yesterday, it was clearly a man. "

Don't tell me this woman's voice is a man's?

The woman was still smiling. Her voice was very gentle as she said, " miss su, you're right. I'm Sir's assistant. My surname is Chen. You can call me assistant Chen.

Oh, I see. Hello, I'm su Wanwan. Su Wanwan politely greeted him.

Assistant Chen led su Wanwan to the room, let her sit on the sofa and poured a cup of tea for her. Su Wan said thank you later and took a sip of the tea. When she drank, she observed the surroundings of the room without leaving a trace and did not find any traces of a man.

Su Wanwan swallowed a mouthful of tea and put down the teacup. Just as she was about to ask, assistant Chen spread out a document and handed it to her. miss su, this is the equity Agent letter. Please take a look. If there are no problems, you can sign here.

Su Wanwan was stunned for a moment. She took the document from assistant Chen's hands. After reading it, she was even more stunned.

She had mentally prepared herself for a war of words today. In the end, she hadn't even said a word, and that gentleman had directly given her the equity Agent? And Yingying was doing it unconditionally.

She couldn't be dreaming, right?

Su Wanwan's big eyes were round, then she reached out and pinched her thigh. The next second, the pain immediately hit her, making her gasp in pain.

Assistant Chen looked at su Wanwan's appearance and was very surprised. miss su, you're Wanwan.

"I, I'm really not dreaming? Why did your husband unconditionally transfer the equity Agent to me?"

Although it was not a purchase, she could still manage the company's shares on her own. In that case, she would hold 51% of the company's shares, which would surpass the PEI family corporation's.

"I'm not sure about that. I'm just following orders. However, it's not without conditions. Our master said that he hopes that you can promise him one thing, anything."
