

Deeply 314

314 I need to give her a status (10)

Su Wanwan came out of the SU residence and sat in her car. She picked up her phone, clenched her fist slightly, and then released it. She took a deep breath and slowly dialed PEI Munian's number one by one.

The moment she pressed the dial button, su Wanwan's heart still couldn't help but tremble.

The beeping sound rang in her ear. Su Wanwan tried to calm her breathing and tried to calm herself down.

When su Wanwan called, PEI Munian was in a meeting. Her phone was set to vibrate and it was buzzing on the table. PEI Munian frowned and glanced at it lazily. Then, he suddenly sat up straight.

All the higher-ups were shocked by his actions. They all sat up, thinking that something had happened.

PEI Munian picked up the phone, her hands trembling. He almost didn't have any hope that su Wanwan would take the initiative to call him. He didn't expect that Yueyue would finally call him!

PEI Munian, who was sitting on the swivel chair, turned around. The back of the chair was facing the crowd. He swallowed his saliva and coughed lightly. Then, he pressed the answer button. Hello.

It was clearly such a familiar voice, but su Wanwan suddenly felt that it was unfamiliar now. Su Wanwan smiled dejectedly, but it didn't matter. Anyway, they would be strangers in the future.

Su Wanwan's lips moved and she said, " PEI Munian, do you have time? " Let's have a talk."

"Alright, when do you want to do it?"

"As soon as possible,"

PEI Munian paused for a moment. then let's have dinner tonight. Shall we? " there's no need to eat. There's no need to waste time. You can decide on the location and just send it to my phone.

Su Wanwan's tone at this time was too cold, but PEI Munian was not dissatisfied. He followed her. okay.

Su Wanwan directly hung up the phone.

PEI Munian also put down the phone and watched as the screen gradually darkened. His heart was filled with a faint anticipation. Su Wanwan's coldness, could it be related to the scandal between him and Xi Zhiwei? did she care a little?

Tonight, as long as she asked, he would tell her everything. If she was willing, he could make up for the mistakes he had made in the past. If she was willing, he still wanted to start over with her.

As PEI Munian thought about it, a gentle light flashed in her eyes. He kept his phone and turned around. Seeing the dumbfounded looks on everyone's faces, he smiled and said, " continue.

After the meeting ended, PEI Munian instructed assistant Wu as she walked out of the meeting room. book a private room for me at dynasty tonight.

Assistant Wu nodded. okay. Are you inviting your friends or a dinner? ”

PEI Munian paused for a moment, then her thin lips parted slightly. on a date.

This time, it was assistant Wu’s turn to pause. His eyes widened. boss PEI, PEI Munian immediately gave him a sideways glance. what nonsense are you thinking about all day? I’m a married man!”

Assistant Wu was stunned for a moment before she understood immediately. boss PEI, you’ve made up with the young Madam? ”

He naturally hoped that they could make up.

“What’s there to gossip about? go do your thing!”

However, assistant Wu winked at him. boss PEI, don’t worry. I’ll book a private room with an extremely good environment for you. I’ll also order a bunch of roses for you.

However, PEI Munian’s attention was not on his words. Instead, she was distracted by an image on the computer next to her.
