324 Get lost (4)

Su Wanwan vomited for a long time. In the end, she couldn't vomit anything out and could only keep retching.

A kind passer-by came over and asked her if she needed help. Su Wanwan shook her head and used all her strength to support herself up. She staggered to the side of the road and hailed a taxi.

When she returned to the hotel, su Wanwan rushed into the bathroom immediately. She took the shower and carefully washed her body up and down. Then, she rubbed her skin hard until it was red and almost peeled off a layer of skin.

However, no matter how clean she was, PEI Munian's scent still lingered on her body. It was as if she could not break free from it no matter what. A nauseated feeling rose in her throat again. She threw the shower head away and rushed to the toilet bowl. She vomited again, but she had already vomited nothing. Now, when she vomited again, she could only vomit out some acid water, which was extremely uncomfortable.

Su Wanwan's body weakly slid down the wall. She covered her face with both hands and cried bitterly.

Her head began to hurt violently again. Su Wan couldn't help but clench her hands into fists and beat her head hard. But the bigger the fist, the more painful it was. Even her vision felt a little dizzy. Her hand supported herself against the wall and she stood up. She stumbled out of the bathroom and walked to the bed. She let herself fall on the bed and closed her eyes.

Everything that happened tonight was just a nightmare. She didn't want to think about anything else.

Anyway, this was just the last nightmare of her life!

Su Wanwan curled up on the bed. She didn't know how long she had slept in a daze. The more she slept, the more confused she became. The more she slept, the more tired she seemed, as if she couldn't wake up no matter what.

The phone was ringing beside her ear. She heard it and her brows furrowed tightly. Her eyelids felt like lead was pressing on them, and she could not open them.

The phone rang for a long time before it calmed down. But soon, su Wan heard knocking on the door again. Bang Bang Bang, it sounded, and it seemed to be mixed with anxious shouts.

Su Wanwan struggled for a long time and finally opened her eyes. She stared at the ceiling in a daze. For a moment, she didn't know what day it was until the sound of knocking on the door came to her ear again and her consciousness also returned little by little.

Su Wanwan took a deep breath and propped her body up to get up. She took the nightgown next to her and put it on, wrapping herself tightly. Then, she walked to the door and opened it.

Outside the door stood Gong Lingyu, panting and looking anxious. When she opened the door, he was still in the position of raising his hand to knock on the door. When he saw su Wanwan, he was stunned for half a second. Then, he stepped in and hugged su Wanwan tightly in front of him.

Su Wanwan's brain, which had not been clear-headed, was stunned again.

Gong Lingyu's worried and anxious voice rang in her ear as he said word by word, "Wanwan, why didn't you pick up the phone? Do you know that you almost scared me to death! Yingluo, I thought you were unhappy again. Yingluo, thank God you're fine, thank God."

"Me? What about me? I ... I just took a nap in my room."

Gong Lingyu let go of Su Wanwan and lowered his eyes to look at her. Seeing her confused look, he didn't know whether to be angry or laugh. What do you mean by sleeping? Wanwan, could it be that you've been here all this time and never left? You should know that I haven't been able to contact you for seven days."

Seven days?

Su Wanwan was stunned and shook her head in disbelief. Impossible. I, how could I have slept for so long? Today, what day is it?"
