

Deeply 340

340 Get lost (20)

Even at this moment, su Wanwan had never denied how fatally attractive this man was. Otherwise, she wouldn't have lost her heart again and again, sinking deep into it and unable to extricate herself.

However, she could finally see clearly that under this Fatal Attraction, there was a fatal poison.

A touch of bitterness floated at the bottom of su Wanwan's eyes. She closed her eyes, took a light breath, and opened them. Her eyes were calm. She took a few steps forward and stopped three steps behind PEI Munian. She looked at him and her red lips parted slightly. PEI Munian, I came today to talk to you about the divorce.

PEI Munian laughed. He slowly turned around and looked down at su Wanwan. The corners of his lips were slanted, but his eyes were cold. The tone of his words seemed extremely frivolous, " su Wanwan, regarding this issue, I think we've already had an in-depth discussion. Why? Do you still not understand?"

PEI Munian also deliberately emphasized the word "deep," causing su Wanwan's calm face to have a trace of collapse.

He still had the face to bring up what happened that night to her! If it wasn't for that night, she wouldn't have gotten pregnant at all, and she wouldn't have to stand here and negotiate with him!

Su Wanwan bit her lower lip and the hands hanging on both sides of her body clenched tightly. However, her cheeks were still stained with a blush, although it was from anger.

A trace of evilness flashed past PEI Munian's eyes. He suddenly took a step forward and walked in front of su Wanwan. His handsome face suddenly enlarged in front of su Wanwan. Su Wanwan was shocked and wanted to retreat, but PEI Munian's arm was one step ahead of her and wrapped around her waist, stopping her movements. He held her in front of him. When his thin lips were about to kiss su Wan's lips, he leaned to her ear. PEI Munian gently opened her thin lips and lowered her voice, becoming more and more flirtatious, " or, you still need me. I'll remind you again."

Su Wanwan was so angry at PEI Munian's shameless words that her chest heaved up and down violently. She raised her hand and pushed PEI Munian away with all her strength. She glared at him fiercely. PEI Munian, you bastard!

PEI Munian wasn't angry at all when she was pushed away. He looked at su Wanwan's angry little face and felt a little comfortable in his heart. He was never afraid of su Wanwan getting angry, nor was he afraid of su Wanwan getting angry. What he was afraid of was her calm and indifferent face. Because she looked like she was invulnerable. No matter what he did, he couldn't provoke her to react at all.

PEI Munian crossed her arms and sized her up with interest. su Wan, if you're here today to fulfill the obligations of a husband and wife with me, I welcome you with open arms. If it's something else, then I'm sorry, I'm very busy. Please go back.

Su Wanwan listened to PEI Munian's words and really wanted to rush up and slap him again. The last time she slapped him, she was too light, so light that he couldn't remember the lesson.

However, su Wanwan knew that if she was really angry with PEI Munian now, she would be falling into his trap. So, she couldn't be impulsive. She must calm down. Only by calming down would she have a chance of winning in the negotiation. And today, she came because she could only allow herself to win and she couldn't lose!

Su Wanwan tried her best to take a deep breath and forcibly suppressed the anger in her heart. She raised her eyes and looked at PEI Munian. The corners of her lips forced a slight arc. Then, she said, word by word, " PEI Munian, I cheated on you.
