

Deeply 350

350 The choice (6)

PEI Munian's eyes were too sharp. Su Wanwan felt as if she had nowhere to hide in front of him. She was eager to get out of this situation and didn't want to continue confronting PEI Munian.

"I, I remember. Yingluo's memory was a little jumbled up because of my headache. I, I remember everything now."

Su Wanwan swallowed her saliva and continued, " anyway, what I do has nothing to do with you. I'm leaving.

Su Wanwan pushed PEI Munian away with force. She got up again and walked quickly to the door. However, after taking two steps, she seemed to have remembered something and retreated. Then, she picked up her bag on the table and left quickly.

PEI Munian sat there, his dark eyes fixed on her. He watched as she left and returned. He watched as she picked up her bag and continued to walk out of the door. His gaze slowly retracted and landed on the divorce papers in his hand.

The reason she came to find him today was for this divorce agreement. Even when Wanwan was in a coma, she was still holding onto the divorce agreement tightly, but now, she didn't even think about it? Wasn't she contradicting herself?

Su Wanwan's behavior when she woke up was really a bit strange. The confusion in her eyes seemed to be real. She didn't seem to know why she was here, why did she hit her head, what was she doing?

All kinds of thoughts emerged in PEI Munian's eyes, but she could not think of a reason for it. He pondered for more than ten seconds, got up, grabbed his car keys, and strode towards the door.

When PEI Munian walked out of the door, she met Dr. Zhao who was walking towards her. He was about to greet him when PEI Munian said, " "Follow me, I have something to ask you."

Dr. Zhao was stunned for a moment before nodding. okay.

—

Su Wanwan went downstairs and left PEI family corporation. She sat in her car and locked it. Only then did she Pat her heart and heave a sigh of relief.

Fortunately, PEI Munian did not do anything inappropriate. He only asked her why she was in PEI Munian's office. Was she the one who went to look for PEI Munian, or was PEI Munian the one who brought her there?

If she was the one who went to look for PEI Munian, what was she looking for PEI Munian for? If PEI Munian was the one who brought her there, what was she going to do to her?

Many questions surfaced in her mind, but she did not have an answer to any of them.

The tingling sensation in her head was still very strong. Whenever su Wanwan thought of what to think, she had a splitting headache, so much so that she didn't dare to think about anything anymore.

Her phone suddenly rang. Su Wanwan supported her forehead with one hand and reached into her bag with the other hand. She took out her phone and pressed the answer button. Her voice was a little weak, " Hello.

Yu Jia heard that there was something wrong with su Wanwan's voice and couldn't help but worry, " "Wanwan? What's wrong? Why does he sound like that?"

I, I think I hit my head just now. My head is hurting badly now.

"Headache? How could you be so careless? didn't you see the text I sent you? The last time the doctor checked on you, he found that there seemed to be something wrong with your brain, which led to the headache. Now, you've hit your head again."

"W-what?" Su Wanwan seemed to be in disbelief and said in surprise, " "What, what happened to my head?"

I'm not sure what's going on either. You should come to the hospital first and let the doctor examine you.