351 The choice (7)

Su Wanwan thought about her recent state. It was indeed very bad. Her memory was always broken, her spirit was not good, and she would fall asleep at any time. She originally thought that it was just because of too much pressure, mental tension, or because of pregnancy. She didn't expect that Huahua's head might have a problem.

Su Wanwan couldn't accept it, but she couldn't escape. After all, she was pregnant now. If something happened to her body, the child would also be affected.

Su Wanwan's hand clenched slightly hard, then she opened her mouth and her voice trembled slightly, "okay, I'll go to the hospital now."

After su Wanwan hung up the phone, she weighed it and knew that she probably couldn't drive to the hospital by herself, so she took her bag and got out of the car. Then, she stopped a taxi and told the driver to go to the hospital.

when su wanwan was sitting in the car, pei munian was also sitting in his car, keeping a certain distance from su wanwan.

When they were in the elevator, he asked Dr. Zhao a few simple questions. He asked, "after hitting your head and fainting, is it possible for you to forget what happened when you wake up?"

there are such cases," Dr. Zhao replied. after a violent impact, the memory will become blank and chaotic. However, it won't last long, and it won't be completely forgotten.

He wouldn't have completely forgotten Yingluo.

And su Wan's reaction was as if she didn't remember at all.

PEI Munian's finger was on her lips, her black eyes full of deep thought. His intuition told him that su Wanwan's situation was not right. He felt uneasy in his heart, so he followed her out uncontrollably.

He saw su Wanwan get out of the car and then get into another taxi. He quickly started the engine, stepped on the accelerator, and followed the car.

When su Wanwan arrived at the hospital, Yu Jia had already asked her assistant to wait for su Wanwan at the door. After seeing her, he directly led her to the brain Department.

As the assistant walked, he said to su Wanwan, "miss su, Dr. Yu has already arranged everything for you and has made an appointment for you. You can rest assured and tell the doctor about your situation. She can't come to accompany you for the time being because she has an operation, but I will always be here. If you need anything, you can let me know.

"Yes, thank you."

"You're welcome,"

The assistant led su Wanwan into the consultation room and the doctor inside stood up to welcome her. are you miss su? ”

Su Wan nodded her head. yes, Hello, doctor.

The doctor smiled and replied, ” “Please take a seat.”

After the two of them sat down, the doctor asked su Wanwan some questions and then briefly examined the wound on her forehead. His eyes gradually became a little serious, ” miss su, based on your current situation, I think my speculation is correct. Your head may have been hit too many times and wasn’t treated. There’s residual blood inside, which caused a headache. However, the specific situation still needs to be taken with a CT scan before we can make a final conclusion.

The doctor paused for a moment and continued, ” I’ll give you a list now. You can go and do a CT scan first.

CT?

Su Wanwan’s beautiful eyebrows suddenly furrowed. Her pearly white teeth bit her lower lip and softly said, ” doctor, c-can a pregnant woman do a CT scan? I, I’m pregnant now.”

“Pregnant?”

The doctor was a little surprised, and his hand that was holding the pen stopped. if it’s a pregnant woman, it’s generally not allowed to do a CT scan, because it will have an unpredictable impact on the fetus. But if it’s necessary, it should be avoided during the first three months.

“How long have you been pregnant?”
