

Deeply 357

357 I would rather you hate me (3)

Su Wanwan's hand that was holding the phone trembled unconsciously. Why did he call her? Did she say something she shouldn't have said when she went to look for him yesterday?

Su Wanwan's heart was perturbed, but she also felt curious. She was worried that she had really done something unconsciously. Her relationship with PEI Munian was so tense now, she couldn't let any more accidents happen.

Su Wanwan took a deep breath and then slowly exhaled. Her fingers slowly pressed the answer button and put the phone to her ear. Her voice was calm and indifferent, "Hello.

PEI Munian's deep and pleasant voice came from the other end of the phone, as crisp as ever. let's meet.

Su Wanwan pursed her red lips and refused without hesitation, "there's no need for us to meet.

PEI Munian sneered. no? Didn't you always want to divorce me? You bombard me with messages every day and even send me divorce papers. Why? Now you don't want to get a divorce?"

".....?"

Su Wanwan's breathing suddenly stopped. That's right, she had been thinking of ways to make PEI Munian agree to divorce her. She almost forgot about this matter. Could it be that she went to look for PEI Munian yesterday because of the divorce?

However, su Wanwan didn't think about these things now. She calmed down and said, "so, do you want to talk to me about the divorce? If you are, then let's meet."

Su Wanwan agreed so readily that PEI Munian seemed to be silent for a few seconds. Then, his voice was neither cold nor warm, basically without any emotion. I will let someone inform you of the time and place.

As soon as she finished speaking, PEI Munian hung up the phone.

Su Wanwan slowly put down her phone, a touch of sadness in the bottom of her eyes. Soon, she curved her lips again and patted her cheek lightly, smiling: "This is good too."

She should have quickly sorted out the matter of the divorce. Only then could she focus on taking care of her child in the future, fight against her headache and blurry memory, and give birth to her child safely.

Her phone rang. Su Wanwan picked it up and looked at it. It was PEI Munian who sent her the time and place to meet.

He had arranged to meet at the black Pond at eight o'clock that night.

Su Wanwan was afraid that she would forget again. She set the alarm clock and set several close times to remind herself.

In the afternoon, su Wanwan went to the company. At present, the company was in a state of great need and couldn't do without her. However, su Wanwan knew her current situation. In the next ten months, she wouldn't be able to focus on managing SU group. On her grandfather's side, she was also willing but unable to do so, so su Wanwan was prepared to look for a candidate to temporarily take care of the company's Affairs for her.

Su Wanwan instructed Xiaomei to find a headhunting company and let the headhunting company find the right person. Xiaomei nodded, wrote down su Wanwan's request, and then said: Sister Wanwan, if there's nothing else, I'll go out first.

Su Wanwan was about to nod when she suddenly thought of something and continued, " help me find an apartment with a quiet environment. It's suitable for me to recuperate. Also, find a big sister who's nimble and doesn't talk much.

"Alright, I understand."

After Xiaomei went out, su Wanwan leaned against the back of the chair, raised her hand and rubbed her temples. Then, she glanced at the clock on the wall. There were only two hours left to eight o'clock.
