364 I'd rather you hate me (10)

PEI Munian's soul, which had been drawn away, seemed to return to her body at this moment. He took a few steps forward and walked to the doctor. His dark eyes were deep and there was a slight tremble at the bottom of his eyes. His lips moved, but he could not make a sound, as if he was afraid of hearing a bad answer.

The doctor was the first to speak. Sir, your wife is fine for now, and the child is fine as well. However, she has symptoms of a miscarriage. You have to pay more attention in the future, or the child will still be prone to problems.

As the doctor's words entered her ears, PEI Munian's breathing stopped for a moment, but then she heaved a huge sigh of relief.

He couldn't lie to himself. He was determined to abort su Wanwan's child. This child, even if su Wanwan denied it, he firmly believed that it was his child. It was impossible for him not to love his child, not to mention that it was a child he and su Wanwan shared.

After PEI Munian heaved a sigh of relief, he realized that his back was covered in cold sweat. His hands and feet were a little weak, and he unconsciously staggered a few steps back.

The doctor quickly reached out to support him. Sir, are you alright? "

PEI Munian shook her head and said in a low voice, " I'm fine. I'm fine.

Su Wanwan is fine, the child is fine, he is also fine

However, the doctor frowned. Sir, you're also injured. I'll get the nurse to come and treat your wound.

"No need,"

PEI Munian stood still and composed herself. He took out his phone from his pocket, his fingers still trembling as he dialed a number.

PEI Munian answered the call and said hoarsely, " Dr. Zhao, I'm already at the hospital. Where are you? "

Su Wanwan was sent to the ward to rest. PEI Munian sat by the bed and looked at su Wanwan, who was sleeping quietly. She thought of the scene just now and her heart still seemed to be afraid.

His hands had been washed clean, but it was as if the bright red blood was still stained on them. It was a ghastly sight.

PEI Munian's hand gently caressed su Wanwan's face. Her movements were so gentle as if she was treating a fragile doll. It was as if she would hurt her if she used a little more strength.

Suddenly, someone knocked on the door of the ward. PEI Munian slowly regained her senses. He leaned over and kissed su Wanwan on the lips. Then, he got up and walked towards the door.

He opened the door. Assistant Wu was standing at the door. She greeted him respectfully, " boss PEI.

PEI Munian did not reply. Instead, she walked out of the room and closed the door gently. have you given Wanwan's case to Dr. Zhao? "

Assistant Wu replied, " I've already sent it to Dr. Zhao. He's already made an appointment with a few brain experts and they're waiting for you in the office.

PEI Munian nodded. Her dark eyes subconsciously glanced at the tightly shut door before she turned back to assistant Wu and said, " you stay here and watch over Wanwan. If she wakes up, keep an eye on her. No matter what, don't let her leave.

"Understood."

PEI Munian stood rooted to the ground for a few more seconds before she strode towards the office.

When she pushed open the office door, a few doctors were in a heated discussion. Dr. Zhao saw PEI Munian and was about to greet him, but PEI Munian gestured for him to not do it. He walked straight to the sofa and sat down. He looked up at the crowd, his thin lips moving slightly as he said, pausing after every word, " give me a conclusion. Can I keep my wife and child safe at the same time? "
