

Deeply 368

368 You've won (2)

Assistant Wu's mind was still in a daze. The words had not even gone through her mind before she blurted out, " then, Yueyue, boss PEI, aren't you going to accompany young Madam? "

At this time, was he going to leave young Madam alone?

PEI Munian's eyes were slightly dazed. She suddenly smiled bitterly. if I don't accompany her, I won't be able to be ruthless if I do.

Assistant Wu only snapped out of his daze after PEI Munian had left for a long time. This was the first time he had seen Big Boss like this after working for him for so long. He couldn't suppress his sorrow. Indeed, he must have felt terrible for Wanwan to make such a cruel decision. Unfortunately, the young Madam didn't know anything about Wanwan.

—

Although su Wanwan and PEI Munian had said harsh words, she had never really thought of giving up her child in her heart. As long as she did not walk to a dead end, as long as she was not forced to the operating table, she still had a chance to save her child's life.

She tried to break out of the bed, but there were two tall and strong bodyguards guarding the door of the ward. No matter what she did, they would not budge. They were like two walls, blocking the way and there was no way to escape.

She also tried to persuade the nurse who had been watching over her, hoping that she could help her. However, she was like a wooden block, unmoved by force or persuasion.

Her phone was also broken by her, so she couldn't contact anyone outside.

She was trapped here, unable to get out, and no one could come to save her and her child. She could only watch as time passed by, second by second, day by day.

In the blink of an eye, half of a week had passed. Su Wanwan was burning with anxiety, but she was helpless.

Could it be that ran ran was really going to let PEI Munian abort her child?

However, this thought only flashed in su Wanwan's mind. She was already in deep pain. She couldn't imagine what she would become if she really lost this child.

No, she would never let anything happen to her child! But what else could Yingluo do?

Su Wanwan's hand unconsciously grabbed her hair. Her head hurt badly, but she still racked her brains to think about it. Suddenly, she thought of death.

Was this really the only way to take a gamble?

She knew that PEI Munian would not care about her life. However, her life was the only bargaining chip she had left. She was going to give it her all. She was betting on the man whom she had once loved so deeply and could not give up on. She was betting that PEI Munian still had a little conscience and humanity.

However, there was a 24-hour nurse in the room. Su Wanwan wanted to do something and was stopped by her immediately. However, su Wanwan didn't really want to die, so naturally, she couldn't do anything too intense. After thinking about it, she finally decided to go on a hunger strike.

From that day on, su Wanwan didn't eat anything and didn't drink much water. She just quietly leaned against the bed and was in a daze. In order to prevent her from losing her memory again, she deliberately wrote down her determination in the book and read it once a day.

In the beginning, the nurse would still try to persuade su Wanwan, but su Wanwan ignored her. Seeing that she was getting weaker and weaker day by day, the nurse was worried that something would happen. She had to take out her phone and call PEI Munian.

—

PEI Munian appeared in front of su Wanwan on the second night of her hunger strike.