If he stayed here for another half a second, if he looked at su Wan's tears again, he would surrender to her, so he had to take advantage of the fact that the wall in his heart had not completely collapsed, before he opened his mouth, quickly get out of here, don't see her tears again, listen to her pleas.

The door of the ward slowly closed in front of su Wanwan's eyes. The last glimmer of hope in her eyes was completely extinguished.

She had lost. She had lost the bet.

Her weakness, her pleading, in the end, did not get the slightest bit of pity from PEI Munian. To him, he didn't want her, su Wanwan. He also didn't want her, su Wan's child. Why was she so silly to hope that he would not have the heart to do so?

Su Wanwan seemed to think that she was ridiculous. She laughed a few times. As she laughed, her tears became more rampant.

PEI Munian left the ward and went to the washroom.

He stood in front of the sink, turned on the tap, and filled his hands with water. The cold water splashed on his face and washed away the tears at the corners of his eyes, but it could not wash away his red eyes.

For the first time in his life, he felt that he was so useless, so powerless. He looked at the person he loved in pain, but he couldn't do anything. If he could, he would rather exchange everything for su Wan's smile.

These days, he had been looking for foreign experts. However, no matter how good the doctor was, if the patient did not cooperate, it would be useless. Before the cause of the illness was found, who dared to treat the patient?

PEI Munian's hand on the sink tightened bit by bit. Because she used too much force, her fingertips were pale.

The bathroom door was suddenly pushed open and assistant Wu walked in. She said respectfully, " Boss PEI, Dr. Zhao is looking for you.

PEI Munian took a deep breath and hid the pain and defeat in his eyes. His handsome face returned to its usual calmness. He nodded, then lifted his feet and walked out.

PEI Munian walked into Dr. Zhao's office. He quickly stood up and welcomed PEI Munian to the sofa. He invited her to sit down and politely asked her what she wanted to drink.

PEI Munian waved her hand. Dr. Zhao, if you have something to say, just say it.

Dr. Zhao nodded and thought for a moment before saying, " boss PEI, I went to give the young Madam an IV drip just now. Her body is very weak and in a bad state. If she doesn't rest well and undergo the abortion surgery in a few days, it will cause great damage to her body. It might even leave behind a bad root.

PEI Munian sat quietly on the sofa, her face dead. I know.

my suggestion is that if you want the operation to go smoothly, I'll give the young Madam some tranquilizers these few days to stabilize her emotions and let her rest for a few days. After the operation, if she gets enough rest, she'll be able to recover very quickly. Only then can the young Madam continue with the brain operation.

PEI Munian's Black eyes narrowed. tranquilizer? That child is so cute."

of course it will be affected. It may cause the child to be deformed. But since you have decided not to want this child, ran ran.

Dr. Zhao didn't finish his sentence, but his meaning was clear.

Dr. Zhao's suggestion was pertinent and correct. PEI Munian knew that he should nod and agree, but at this moment, su Wan's sorrowful and crying face uncontrollably appeared in his mind. His throat felt like it was being choked by a big hand, and he couldn't make a sound.

He clenched his fists tightly and took a deep breath. Just as he was about to open his mouth, the office door was pushed open. A nurse's anxious and panicked voice could be heard. boss PEI, bad news. The young Madam ... She ... She ... She ... She ... She ...
