PEI Munian stood up abruptly and looked at her with her dark eyes. Her gaze was distant and her voice was low. "what's wrong with Wanwan?"

The nurse was so anxious that she didn't even catch her breath. She said quickly, " Dr. Zhao just finished giving the young Madam an IV, and she fell asleep very quickly. I let Hanhan down a little, but I didn't expect her to take the needle out of her hand when I wasn't paying attention. She even took the needle and tried to stab her own neck, forcing us to let her leave Hanhan.

Before the nurse could finish her sentence, she felt a strong gust of wind beside her. Then, PEI Munian was nowhere to be seen. She was stunned for a moment before Dr. Zhao reminded her, " what are you still standing there for?" "Hurry up and help!"

"Ah? Yes, yes!"

When PEI Munian rushed to the ward, she saw that assistant Wu and his two bodyguards had already been forced out of the door. Su Wan was surrounded by them. She obviously couldn't stand still, but the needle was firmly held on her neck. It had even pierced her skin and blood was seeping out.

PEI Munian's Black eyes turned cold. He took a few steps forward, pushed the bodyguard aside, and directly approached su Wanwan step by step.

Su Wanwan's pupils contracted slightly, and her hand holding the needle tightened. PEI, PEI Munian, don't daze and don't come over.

Although her voice was weak, her tone was very firm. "if you come over, I can die with my child right now without waiting for the operation!"

PEI Munian's footsteps paused for a moment. She stared at su Wanwan's pale face that was completely bloodless. All her worries turned into anger, surging in her chest. Her voice was extremely sharp and carried a strong sense of ridicule. "su Wan, you can't even stand steadily now. Do you think you can threaten me?"

As PEI Munian spoke, she approached su Wanwan again.

Su Wanwan unconsciously took two steps back but quickly stood still. She curled her lips and her smile was full of misery. "I never expected to threaten you, PEI Munian. I'm just fighting for the hope of my child's survival. I've worked hard and I won't have any regrets. Since I can't take my child away from here now, I can only die with him!"

As soon as her words fell, su Wanwan's eyes quickly flashed with a trace of determination. Her hand exerted force and she was about to pierce the needle into her neck.

PEI Munian was shocked. She quickly reached out to grab su Wanwan's hand, but su Wanwan seemed to be prepared. The needle that was originally going to pierce her neck pierced PEI Munian's arm. The pain hit her and his hand reflexively retracted. Su Wanwan withdrew the needle and stabbed her neck again.

Her movements were too fast and the crowd didn't have time to react. The needle pierced su Wan's skin and bright red blood gushed out, almost dying PEI Munian's eyes red.

PEI Munian was shocked. She took a step forward, grabbed su Wan's hand with one hand, and forcibly snatched the needle away. Her other hand quickly covered su Wanwan's neck, but the blood continued to flow out from the gaps between his fingers.

Su Wanwan's body fell limply. PEI Munian held her body and her voice became hoarse. su Wanwan, you crazy woman. Is that child Yingluo so important? Is it more important than your life?"

"Of-of course Yingluo is important. He-he is my-my life."
