Su Wanwan avoided aunt Zhang, but she had only taken a few steps when she saw a familiar figure striding over here. Assistant Wu was following behind him. Su Wanwan's back suddenly turned cold. Her feet turned in another direction, her whole person squatted down and hid behind the cart.

PEI Munian strode forward with her long legs and approached step by step. Su Wanwan cowered there, her hand covering her mouth hard and holding her breath, for fear that she would make a sound.

When PEI Munian walked over, Auntie Zhang chased after her from the other side, her face full of anxiety and worry. Sir, something's wrong. Miss su ran away when I wasn't paying attention.

PEI Munian's eyes darkened and her tone was serious. when did this happen? "

"Just now." Auntie Zhang replied, " Sir, did you see miss su when you came in? If not, miss su should still be in the hospital. She's very weak now."

PEI Munian clenched her fists and took a deep breath. She then said in a deep voice, " assistant Wu, get someone to stand guard at the entrance. If you see her, don't let her leave. You and Auntie Zhang can search the hospital. She shouldn't have gone far.

Assistant Wu nodded, " understood.

Auntie Zhang also nodded. okay.

"Go on."

After saying this, PEI Munian strode forward and looked left and right in search of her.

After the three of them left, su Wanwan supported herself with the cart and slowly stood up. She didn't expect PEI Munian to come so quickly. Now that the door was guarded, she couldn't go to the main door and they were all looking for her in the hospital. If she couldn't leave quickly, she would be found by them sooner or later. What should she do?

Su Wanwan's hand grabbed the cart hard, her fingertips pale. She must not be caught by PEI Munian again. She must not let him hurt her child again.

A nurse walked past her and su Wanwan reached out to stop her. She said in a low voice, " miss nurse, may I ask, other than the hospital's main gate, is there any other way to get out of this hospital? "

The nurse nodded. yes, there's a back door.

Su Wanwan was happy. how do we go? "

The nurse pointed out the way for su Wanwan, but she looked at su Wanwan's pale face and her body that was on the verge of collapse. She couldn't help but be concerned: "Miss, are you alright? You don't look too good."

"I'm fine, thank you."

As her words fell, su Wanwan endured the discomfort of her body and carefully moved towards the hospital entrance with difficulty.

With every step su Wanwan took, she felt her stomach ache a little. She held her stomach and tried hard to speak, " baby, all the best, hang in there for a while. Mom will be fine once I'm out of the hospital. You have to be strong so that mom can protect you, understand? "

She encouraged the baby in her stomach and also encouraged herself. Even if every step she took was so painful, she was able to persevere for the sake of her child.

She gradually approached the back door of the hospital. It was quiet and cold, without a single person.

Su Wanwan looked at the back door, which was only a few hundred meters away from her, and her eyes lit up slightly. As long as she insisted on walking this road, she could escape from PEI Munian's surveillance.

Su Wanwan thought about it and couldn't help but speed up her pace.

Suddenly, a cart rushed out from the side. Su Wanwan only cared about moving forward and didn't care about her left and right. When the cart rushed over, she couldn't Dodge in time and was heavily hit on the side of her waist.
