PEI Munian leaned against the wall and listened to Gong Lingyu's angry words. Her eyes were slightly dazed.

Sometimes, caring too much would become a kind of hurt. Love but not being able to get it, love but resentment, love would become a sharp weapon that would hurt others and oneself.

If he'd known earlier, if he'd known about Wanwan, he would've rather kept looking at her from afar than greedily get close to her and greedily want her to love him.

He still asked stubbornly, " did she agree to the operation? "

Gong Lingyu really felt that PEI Munian was ridiculous and couldn't understand what he was thinking. He didn't love su Wanwan, so he forced her to this dead end. But now, he would do everything he could to let him pretend to be Mr. W and be a good person in front of su Wan. He also wanted to make su Wan agree to the operation and live on. Was it because of guilt? Or does ran ran also love su Wanwan?

However, he didn't want to know the answer. In his opinion, he was no longer worthy of su Wanwan's love for him. He also didn't have the right to accompany su Wanwan.

Gong Lingyu took a deep breath and said in a low and sharp voice, " she agreed, but Yingluo said she doesn't want to see you, whether before or after the operation. If you still have a little conscience, then please don't appear in front of her again! Next, I'll be accompanying her, accompanying her for checkups, operations, and recovery!"

"I can choose not to appear in front of her." PEI Munian's lips curled up slightly, her eyes desolate. but I have to be with her during the examination before the operation.

He would not leave her side until he was sure that she was absolutely safe.

"You,"

don't worry, she can't see anymore. She won't know if the person by her side is you or me.

Gong Lingyu was so angry that he laughed. why should I help you? "

Now, he couldn't wait for PEI Munian to stay far away from su Wanwan, the further the better.

This time, he came to persuade su Wanwan not because of his request, but only because of su Wanwan.

Suddenly, Gong Lingyu thought of something and his eyes narrowed. He slowly let go of PEI Munian's collar and took two steps back. He looked at her and said word by word, " I can help you, but I want something!

PEI Munian began to accompany su Wanwan to do various examinations under Gong Lingyu's identity. Su Wan's illness had been dragged on for too long. The blood clot had expanded and compressed many important nerves. The risk of surgery was too high, so the doctor temporarily adopted other treatment to see if there was any hope of making the blood clot shrink a little before surgery.

Some of these treatments were very painful, especially some injections. Every time su Wanwan got an injection, that kind of pain was really like thousands of ants gnawing on your body. It was extremely painful.

Su Wanwan was in so much pain that she bit her lower lip hard. However, the next second, PEI Munian was worried that she would bite herself and he wanted to open her mouth. Su Wanwan was in too much pain at that time and was in a daze. She bit whatever she caught and bit his hand just like that, biting it hard.

PEI Munian let out a muffled groan. However, he did not pull his hand back and allowed her to bite him. After that, he did not make a sound.

After the treatment, the pain wasn't so strong. Su Wanwan's consciousness slowly recovered, and then she felt the tip of her tongue taste a strong fishy smell.

Su Wanwan quickly let go, her voice weak and apologetic, " s-sorry.
