423 The happiness that was stolen (7)

PEI Munian raised her eyes and glanced at Dr. Zhao. Then, he gently closed the door before he walked towards the end of the corridor.

Dr. Zhao followed him until he walked out of the corridor and stopped on the lawn in front of the hospital. Dr. Zhao also stopped and looked at the handsome man in front of him.

On his face, he saw joy and relief, excitement and anticipation. However, after these emotions passed, only heaviness remained.

Dr. Zhao could roughly guess what he wanted to say.

PEI Munian stood there, his dark eyes looking at the void in front of him. After a long silence, he finally opened his mouth and spoke in a low voice that was a little cold in the middle of the night.

“Dr. Zhao, is Wanwan’s condition temporary or permanent?”

Su Wanwan had a brain surgery, so it was normal for her to have such aftereffects. After all, the brain would indeed affect many things, but how long would Hanhan’s aftereffects last?

Dr. Zhao was not surprised by his question. He seemed to have already thought of an answer as he replied unhurriedly, “boss PEI, there is no way to give you a definite answer when it comes to medical matters. Miss SU’s condition is rare, but it is not considered rare. According to past examples, some people will never recover to their previous state. Instead, they will learn to become a new person. However, some people only have temporary brain damage. After rehabilitation, their bodies will slowly get better. At the same time, other aspects, such as her memory, her abilities, and the things she has learned, will also recover if they are stimulated by some special force.”

“Especially exciting?” PEI Munian couldn’t help but cast a sidelong glance.

Dr. Zhao nodded. yes. For example, if you come into contact with some people, things, things, things, or things related to your previous memories, you’ll be stimulated.

After a pause, Dr. Zhao looked at PEI Munian and said knowingly, “with miss SU’s current condition, it’s impossible for her to recover in a short period of time. She’s very fragile and at a loss right now. Her world needs to be filled with all sorts of things. Boss PEI, if you want, you can totally create a new world for her.

When PEI Munian returned to the Ward, Dr. Zhao’s words still lingered in her ears.

It wasn’t that he wasn’t moved, it wasn’t that he didn’t want to, it was just that his current state was equivalent to taking advantage of the situation. And he clearly knew that the person Xuanji su Wanwan liked was Gong Lingyu.

That night, she asked him, Gong Lingyu, with anticipation and apprehension, that if she survived, they could try to be together.

He had also said that as long as she woke up, he was willing to fulfill their wishes.

Forcing a person who doesn't love you to stay by your side, but the result was a lose-lose situation for both sides. It's not that he didn't try, but when he pushed open the door of the ward and saw su Wanwan's bright eyes looking at him anxiously, all the hesitation and retreat in his heart were instantly covered by determination.

He slowly stepped forward, his black eyes looking down. His hand gently held su Wan's hand. His thin lips opened and he said word by word, "Wanwan, about your question that night, my answer is, I'm sorry, I don't want to let go of your hand.

He unconsciously exerted more force on his hand and continued, "so, even if you might recover in the future, I still want Qianqian to hold on to this, the only chance for you to love me.

After PEI Munian accompanied su Wanwan to sleep, he got up and walked to the window. He picked up his phone and made a call.
